To Stephen Law Esq.
Governor at Bombay.

Sir

By the Royal Guard Capt Hoadley.

I hope you receid my Letter of the 9th February last by the Hardwicke Capt Cook in answer to your favour of 3d October 1737. Since which our Bookseller Mr Dickenson has discharg'd your Account with him.

The Society will be glad to hear the Books sent in order to your Hands, and whenever you want any more of the kind please to signify your Command to me.

We are here in a near prospect of War, with the preparations for which engross most people's thoughts tho' it can scarce affect you but by a very different Rotation however to give you some Account of our present Situation give me leave to refer you to the enclosed print, and to assure you that I am

Sir your most obed. humble Servt

Henry Newman

Some learned Antiquaries here have been long inquisitive after a Lexicon for the antient Persic, in order to interpret some MSS. in the Bodleian Library at Oxford; if such a book can be had in your parts that can be warranted by good Authority for Genuine, you will oblige some curious Gent. here to signify what may be the price of purchasing such Lexicon or a correct Copy of it.

To the Reverend Mr Schultze at Madras Fort St George.

Bartlet Buildings

[illegible] Missionaries at Tranquebar [illegible] for Fort St. George; they arrived here last week from Helv. by the way of Rotterdam.

I shall write to you more largely by the Ship they go in, to which give me Leave to refer you, and at the same time acknowledge the kind Letter I had the honour of receiving from Govern.r Benyon and 2 Packets from Mr. Howard. My humble service in the mean time attends them, the Rev.d Mess.rs Wyneh and the rest of the Corresponds.ts at Fort St. George, and please to be assured that I am

Reverend Sir

Yo.r most humble Serv.t

Henry Newman

I pray give my humble Service to Mr Gueister and let him know of Mr. Hinander's coming to him if I don't write. I bid the Missionaries at Tranquebar know of the other Gent.n &c.a my Service to them all. I have sent Renew.d 4 Lres from Mr Ziegenhagen.

To the Rev.d Mr. Gueister at Cudulore near Fort St. David.

London. 1. January. 1739/40.

Reverend Sir

I receiv.d in due time your Letters of the 10.th of September 1738. the 8.th 9.th & 20. January following w.th your Account of Receipts and Disbursements for one year ending Dec.r 1738. which have been all laid before the Society and referd to a special Committee to be answer.d by the latter Ships. In the mean time all the things you desired are bespoke to be sent I believe by the Colchester Capt. Mitchelfield. and upon your desiring a Colleague to supply the Loss of Mr Sartorius the Society embraced the first opportunity of requesting Profess.r Francke to recommend one to be sent in one of these Ships now going, which he has accordingly done in the Reverend Mr John Zacharias Kiernander by Birth a Swede who has been some years first Præceptor, and afterwards Inspector in the Orphan house at Halle, of an obliging Disposition & adorn'd with many excellent Qualifications for an Evangelick Missionary when it may please God to grant him a safe arrival at Cudulore

With these Gentlemen Passengers viz. Mr. Isaac Philip Tutor & Mr.
Leyplin who arriv'd here with Mr. Kinnaber from Elsi-nore the 4th of last month and are now preparing themselves for Voyage with proper necessaries.

George William Beck arriv'd here in the Convoy Capt. Martin who having been detain'd by contrary Winds on Ireland till War was declar'd against Spain, they were obli to wait sometime for Convoy; so that it was the latter end before George was deliver'd on Shore & consequently too late the Seas to Germany; He is now at my House at the Prince of Liegenhagen till he can be sent to Germany. He sends his hu Service & Duty to you and his Mother, and seems possess'd of a Genius which I hope may be improv'd by his voyage to Europe to make him useful to his Generation either in Europe or India for the Glory of God and the Satisfaction of his friends who have cern'd themselves in bestowing on him a liberal Education.

May it please God many years to prosper your in the Mission with abundant Success for enlargeing the of our dear Saviour on Earth is the wish of all your friends particularly of

Rev.d Sir

Your most Obed.t humble Serv.t

Henry Newman.

P.S.
My humble service to all the Missionaries at Tranquebar to whom I hope to write by this Ship.

London. 2. January 1739/40.

To the Rev.d Mess.rs Dal, Pope, Caspius & d.a Missionaries at Tranquebar.

Reverend Sirs

I have receiv'd your Letters of the 17/30 Dec.r 1739. M.r Obuch's of the 9.th Sept.r 1736. and M.r Obuch's of the 4.th & 5.th January. 1738/9 with Several Packets for the Rev.d Mr Liegen-hagen, Professor Franeke, and others of your friends to whom they were all forwarded as directed: but I am sorry to tell you that the 2. Packets mark'd N.o I. and II. by the Prince Mary Capt.n Martin are not yet come to hand which leaves your friends [illegible] for which [illegible] to take Care of them dispos'd of as it pleases them in their own Chest, which cannot yet be come at in the Company's Warehouse where they are to be subjected to the examination of Custom house Officers before they can be come at, which in the present holiday time is easily delay'd.

The Princess Mary being forced by contrary Winds into — Scotland, and there to be detain'd till War w.th Spain was declar'd — She was afterwards oblig'd to wait for Convoy, so that it was last Month before She began to unload in the Thames. If you can so order it for the future as to send your Letters w.th the Company's — Packets they will come sooner to hand, and not be subject to the inspection of Custom house Officers.

About the middle of last month arrived here from Malle by the way of Holland the Reverend Mr John Philip — Fabritius and Mr Daniel Leghlin to take passage in one of our Outward Ships as Missionaries to Trangnebar, and w.th them arrived Mr John Zachary Kiernander to succeed Mr. Sartorius at Cudulore as Colleague to Mr. Gueister; they will go next to embark in the Colchester Capt. Michelfield Junior in whom I hope to ship printing Paper &c.a from the Society as usual.

May God Almighty bless all your Labours for the advancement of his Glory in the service of the Mission are the wishes of all your friends here particularly of

Reverend Sirs

Your most humble Serv.t

Henry Newman

To the Honourable the Court of Directors of the United East India Company of England

May it please your Honours.

The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge being desired to recommend three Missionaries to supply the Vacancies of those lately deceased in the East of Coromandel East India, I am ordered humbly to request this Honourable Court would permit the Revd Mr. Kiernander Mr Fabricius and Mr. Teghlin to embark in one of the Company's Ships to Fort St. George free of Charge to the Company, and that their Baggage and other Stores of Books after having been viewed by order of Court together with the Particulars & quantities for the use of the Protestant Mission in those parts may be sent at the same time freight free.

Sr.

I had the honour of your Letter of the 8th. of January 1738/9 and acquainted the Society with the Contents of it, who desire you would accept their Thanks for your kind inclinations to consider the Mission they are engaged in, as part of your general Care, and for the assurances you vouchsafe of granting it your Protection and Regard, which for the reason you give is all that can be expected from a Person in your Station, and the experience they have had of your favour towards

Duplicate by the Caesar Capt. Cummyn.

[illegible] have [illegible] the Society [illegible] the Place of Mr Lewis Timmins deceased [illegible] who they hope will always depend themselves worthy of [illegible] he brought from Professor Francke at Halle in Saxony [illegible] this Service; With him are embarked Mr Boltzius & Mr Gronau [illegible] Together 2 other Missionaries from the College at Copenhagen [illegible] Mission at Tranquebar, by leave of the Kings Consent of [illegible] here.

It is no small Consolation to the Society to find you have [illegible] any Prospect of Success attending the Labours of Mr Ziegenhagen [illegible] after his many years toil, and if he could find an Assistant [illegible] those he or the other Missionaries have educated, in whom he [illegible] confide for Conveying the Truths of the Gospel to the Heathen at [illegible] Madras, it would be happy for him and very agreeable to the [illegible] Society.

This is a Matter the late Archbp. of Canterbury very much [illegible] recommended and till Missionaries can be raised among the [illegible] Natives of India to assist in propagating Christianity, the Affair [illegible] will be prosecuted with much difficulty by those who are sent at [illegible] great Expence from Europe, and must spend some years in [illegible] to acquire the Languages &c. before they can be qualify'd to [illegible] any impression on the Heathen, of this you must be [illegible] Sensible to want demonstration.

The Society desire your Acceptance of a small present [illegible] Mr Schultze will present you, they heartily wish the Continuance of [illegible] the Divine Blessing on your Administration, and beg you to be [illegible] assur'd that I am with all possible respect

Sir

Your most Obed.t humble Serv.t

Henry Newman

To the Hon.ble Gov.r Hubbard at Fort St. David's

Bartlet's Building.
London 20. March 1739/40

Sir

I receiv'd your obliging Letter of the 13.th of January 1738/9, and having acquainted the Society with the Contents of it I am ordered to desire your Acceptance of their Thanks for it, and

[illegible] Commanders with Chaplains on [illegible] Ships of the Squadron, as an [illegible] to the Directors who were both recommended to the continuance [illegible] With him go also Mr Fabritius and Mr Leyblin to assist in the Mission at Tranquebar.

The Difficulties attending the foundation of such an Undertaking as this are such as cannot be surmounted but by the Blessing of God and patience in the use of most prudent means for propagating true Christianity among the Heathen, a work that cannot be suddenly executed or supported but by the united endeavours of good Men who wish well Mankind may be brought to the knowledge of Jesus Christ the Saviour of the World.

May your Administration be always prosperous and favourable to this Laudable design is the wish of the Society as well as of

Sr Your most obed. humble Servt

The Society desire your acceptance of a small Casket of their Books which their Shipmaster will convey to you.

London 21 March 1739/40.

To the Revd Messrs Wynch & Howard } Chaplains And to Messrs Fowke, Morse, Torriano, Rous & Johnson. } Merchts } at Fort St George

Gentlemen

The indulgence you have given to the Society of consigning their Goods to you for the Service of the Protestant Mission at Madras and elsewhere on the Coast of Coromandel has encouraged them to continue taking that Liberty by recommending the things sent for the Mission in the Glocester to your Protection and good Offices for conveying each parcel as directed by the Invoice inclosed. I have covered the Original Receits I received from the Officers on board both for the Money and Goods, which if they reach your hands will serve instead of Bills of Lading.

The Society thank you for all your kind Offices to the Mission and request the Continuance of them to Mr Kirnander who goes over in the Glocester to succeed Mr Sartorius at Cudulore, and to Messrs

Fabritius

[illegible] Letters [illegible] [illegible] Journal [illegible]

I Prayed to accept of the Bookes which were sent you by the Reverend Mr Chamberlayne out of the Fund [illegible] as mentioned in the Invoice, and if you at any time [illegible] Separately signify your thoughts wherein the [illegible] the Society for the Encouragement of those Gentlemen [illegible] Missions contemporane, the Society will think themselves obliged.

Your advices formerly have not things in such a state as have been greatly serviceable, and if the Event has not been answerable to their wishes you know to what it was to be imputed — The Society have earnestly exhorted the Missionaries on the British Establishment to put in oblivion all former misunderstandings which gave you and them much trouble, and I hope they will for the future conduct themselves so as to merit your applause and draw down the Blessing of God on their Labours.

The Society have received very kind Letters by the last Ships from Governor Bomyon & Gov.r Hubbard which assure them of their readiness to give their Countenance and Protection to the Mission.

May God almighty's Blessing accompany you in all your Endeavours for the Advancement of his Glory and the propagation of true Christianity is the wish of the Society wherein joins most sincerely

Rev.d Sirs & Gentlemen

Henry Newman

I received Mr Coward's Packets with the Letters enclosed by his friends which were all forwarded by the first Post.

To the Rev.d Mr. Schultze at Madras.

Lond.o 18. March 1739/40

Reverend Sir.

I am favoured with your Letters to the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge dated on the 15 of September 1738 and the 15. of January 1738/9 which likewise enclosed your Acc.t of Receits and Disbursements for the Mission at Madras in the year 1738. The Society

[illegible] Their [illegible] Their [illegible] Their

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] Christ, who hath abolished Death, & hath brot Life and Immortality to light, whereunto (as you ought always to remember) you are appointed (not so much by the Society as their Missionary; as by the Will of God who called you to his Ministry) to be a Preacher and a Teacher of ye Gentiles.

Herein therefore, Reverend Sir, the Society would have you above all things to employ your self and to see that you never cease your Labour, your Care and diligence; until you have done all that lyeth in you, according to your bounden duty, to bring all such as are, or shall come within your Charge or Acquaintance unto the Knowledge of God in Christ and to that perfectness in faith and practice according to the Scriptures, as that there be no place left among them, either for error in Religion — or for vicious ness in life. — When you have done this, among those, who understand the Languages, wherein you can already communicate to them the words of God; it will be time enough to think of making further Proselytes by written or printed Versions of the Scriptures in any other Tongue, than what you can be supplied with from Tranquebar — Your Zeal and pains herein are very good; but you should consider what greater good you may do, before it will be possible for you to bring any such Scheme to perfection. — How I am to inform you by an express order from the Society that they can neither — bear the expence of Printing, nor of copying the holy Scriptures — themselves in your Language and in the manner you propose; this Fund for the East India Mission falls so very short of such purposes, that they have been oblig'd even to support the present expences of it out of their other Funds; for the accounts our Missionaries have sent us of its progress tho' published every year, have not been so satisfactory and encouraging as to excite such liberal Contributions to this glorious and Charitable design of propagating the Gospel, as to bear its own Charges for some years past — However they trust to the Providence of God, & to his Grace — in prospering your Labours at Madras, together with those of their Missionaries at Cuddalore, that they shall in his own due time

by wch you do that the Additional [illegible] only supplies the want of these things, but [illegible] abundant also by many Converts & Thanksgivings unto the and Glory of God.

I have a little more to add, but that the Society are pleased wth the Progress that has been made by those of your School Boys in Learning, writing & Catechising some that you already think im fit for Schoolmasters and Catechists; and the more so as there is hope, that you may with further pains be & blessed by the Grace of God) qualify them for higher Offices the Mission — I would to God they may prove hereafter Mission themselves for none can be more likely than such Persons if God be with them to spread the Gospel in their own native The Society have by these Ships sent a new Assistant Miss to Cudalore, M^r. Kiernander by name; whose Character abroad, and his behaviour wth us, promises all the good that be expected from him — They do therefore recommend him most earnestly to y^r Friendship & good offices; depending on upon you not only to shew him personally the favour he will deserve from you, but to do all within your power for the furth ance of our Mission itself at Cudalore by looking upon it, not on as your own (as it was my original design) but as if God had thereby opened (tho' thro' the personal animosities, and divisions of Men) another great and effectual door of Faith unto the Gen for their Salvation and his Glory. But to finish this long you will I hope receive from the Society all the things you want for the service of the Mission together with y^r Sal[illegible] and their usual Presents by the Ships that bring this Letter, w has been long stopped by our War wth Spain, and a most severe Season this Winter. — I am in their name to salute you all kindness & respect. — You have their constant & fervent Prayers to God for his Blessings on your Person, & on y^r Labou my Gospel; wherein give me leave to join wth them most heart & affectionately as being their Servt & in all good Offices wth my Power.

Revd Sir Y^r. most faithful humble Servant
Henry Newman

P.S. Your Journal was very acceptable to the Society; who do likewise approve of y^r. acc^t. of Rel^n & Disburs^ts tho' they must desire you to use all possible Frugality, considering that their Mission Fund is quite exhausted, & has been hitherto supplied in good measure out of w^t has been given to their general Designs.

I have the favour of the several papers you sent to me the last year, by the 5th. 9th. Letters of every different date, the first on the 10th of September 1738 and the others on y 11th & 23d of January following: and as they only relate to the Business of your Mission, I have laid them all before the Society, so that the Answer I am now writing to you is drawn up not only by their general Order; but under their particular directions in every Point. — They are as sensible as you can be how much y Mission at Tanjore must suffer for a while at least by the unexpected & sudden death of yd. Friend and fellow Labourer in the Gospel Mr Sartorius, on whom it pleased God to bestow extraordinary Abilities and gifts — for the work of his Ministry, and to give him grace besides to make a most faithful application & indefatigable use of them. — May his Example as well as Memory be always dear to you, & live with you! nor can any Prayer be more suitable to your present Circumstances than for a double Portion of his Spirit to be upon you; and may God hear and grant it, whose Providence can bring good out of Evil, and repair his Loss to your Self and the Society.

It is indeed wth thanks to God that the Society hear y. you have been able to go on so well as you have done thro' that variety — you mention of Business and Labour. — It therefore ought to be a Consolation & support to you as it was to St Paul, that God has said, My Grace is sufficient for thee; for my Strength is made perfect in weakness. However as it would be presumption in you to neglect any human means he puts into your power; so the Society doubt not — but that you will spare neither Skill nor pains in carrying on the good work wherein you are engaged for the glory of God & y Salvation of Men; & more particularly y. you will, according to yd. present Intentions, apply yd Self wth earnestness & diligence to attain a perfect knowledge of y Malabarian Language, without which you can do but little towards propagating the Gospel or converting the Heathen in those parts. Nay of this you seem so sensible, y. you chiefly lament the death of Mr Sartorius on acct. of his great Skill in it. One would therefore believe, that you have always had this study at heart: & that your not being as yet a Master of that Language is more owing to its difficulties or want of time, y to any neglect of diligence in yourself

[illegible] entered into; I mean a close Communion and Friendship w.th the Gentile nations, since this is the surest Method means of any without Miracles, to bring them acquainted w.th the Religion, and as such you looked upon it in your Letters dated so long ago as Oct. 31. 1727. For the Truths of Gospel, concerning practice as well as Faith are so impressed affecting a nation and on their own account so worthy of [illegible] be received; that the Society would fain hope, that thro' the astonishing Love & infinite Mercy of Almighty God in the Salvation of a Sinful world thro' his only beloved Son, and if they are but fully known, approve themselves by Judgm.t and conscience all reasonable & honest persons, and fill their minds w.th peace & joy in believing them notwithstanding the prejudices & Corruptions that are in the world thro' error and lust — The prejudices of Heathens nor of Corruptions nor the Hypocrisy of those Heathens with you may converse should none of them ever discourage you from imparting to them y.e Knowledge of these Truths, y.e true Light of the glorious Gospel of Ch.t, who is the Image of God may shine into their hearts, & turn them from darkness & power of Satan unto God; whose holy Spirit we trust at y.e same time open the Eyes of their understandings, that they may see the things belong to their Salvation, of which you seem to have an earnest desire as you observe, that the Malabarians do already take particular notice how much money is Spent in Building a House w.ch is intended only for their Benefit — But this way of arguing will hold much stronger, if you can bring them to consider that the Society can have no other view in the whole Expence of the Mission (great as it is) the glory of the one true God and the everlasting happiness of their Souls.

For these Reasons Rev.d Sir the Society think that they have reason to exhort you to go on & persevere in y.e Duty of converting the Heathen; nothing doubting but that the Grace of God will be sufficient for you — & prosper you in his works beyond all expectations. — Notwithstanding which it may concern you in human wisdom, to use such Circumspection & prudence, as the holy Instructions & admonitions, be not cast away as Pearls before Swine upon such as appear to be obstinate & incorrigible; who instead of being

[illegible] Gentlemen [illegible] Society [illegible] happening [illegible] Gospel of Christ, be hindred by them — But herein [illegible] Caution, lest the Reserve you are of the Malabarians should be by the different ways of them: & therefore he should think you not sufficient judge of the methods and seasons most promising of their happy application; Observing only to you that as far as private Conferences can be had they must be best as many Lessons for laying a Foundation, whereon to build in your publick Discourses — There is indeed the more necessity for such application, because as you intimate, there is no hopes of having a Malabarian School, till Malabarian Parents can be prevailed upon to enter into the Christian Church. Now without a School of this sort, wherein Children may have a Christian Education, there can be little likely hood of our most holy Religion's spreading in those parts. — Your Mission therefore is as yet but in every bad state, since the Scholars you have in your Portuguese School appear to be for the most part Children of a Christian Parent by the Father's side at least; Children of Soldiers in a Garrison, where you meet with all encouragement and Favour from the Governor; Nay Children, as I believe from their names, all of Englishmen, excepting Francisco de Souza: and of these you had but 8. in y beginning of this year, a very small number considering the great Expence of y Mission; and that even these Children are fed & cloathed at as cheap a rate as taught by you: — Whereas the Mission can never be said to flourish till you have induced Heathen Parents to send their Children to you from a Love of the Truth themselves — not for food & raiment to the Boarding of their Children but for Christ.
Nurture to their Souls.

What I have Sir, more to say to you by the order of the Society is of little Consequence in comparison of these great purposes of your Mission. — But they have for your Encouragement and Reward agreed to increase your Salary to £50. per Annum from the 1st. of January 1739/40. and have likewise sent you a present of £8. in regard to y extraordinary Trouble you have had, since the Death of Mr Sartorius. — You will also God willing have according to your earnest desire by these ships, a Coadjutant, Missionary — to ease your Burden; Mr. Kierander by name, who comes so highly recommended

Rules and orders for their Mutual Embraces: and [illegible] Harmony where another, and act together [illegible] contradictory of the Mission as may [illegible] but take the Word that your Separation from the Mission with was owing to personal animosities, and divisions, [illegible] Providence of God, fallen out for the further ease of the Gospel.

As to the particular management of the Mission Schools at Cudalore the Society leave them entirely without any directions, to the joint Care and prudence of you self and Mr Kiernander in Conformity to their standing Rules and orders; but they are glad to hear, y.t you have at last so good a Schoolmaster, as you have found in Cesar Pelow: and the more so, as he is a native of the Country and bred up in the English Charity Schools.

In regard to expences, they must again caution you to use all possible Frugality, not only in your buildings, but in the maintenance of your Servants School-boys and Catechumen Men. — They must also press you the rather to do this in as much as the Benefactions they have received of their Mission, and have from year to year published to the World, have not hitherto been such as to bring in any increase of Benefactions, so that they have been obliged to defray for some years the greater part of the Charge out of their other Fund. And this is another motive to determine you, both to exert yourself in your that you may excite more liberal Contributions from others: to be carefull of every thing, that can imprudence lay upon your Dilatoriness

Now as this has been before recommended to you, they are willing to hope they have misunderstood you in the Accounts them of the New Mission house you are building; for tho' they do you in over running a good deal the Estimate you laid before them, y it will be almost unpardonable in you, if you have not so contrive the Scheme or plan of it, as that it be fit for no Missionaries to live in as well for all other purposes, without any future Expence; however little expence that may be; or even tho' any addition or alteration may innocent prejudice, what you call the Symmetry of the Buildi which surely in a Mission house ought never to come into competition consideration with the Realities of it. — However they hope the build it as it will, I am to tell you, that they approve of the purchase you have made out of Mr Sadoras's private Collection Books for their public Library. They also think that you did very rightly

I have nothing more to add, but that the Society have sent your Salary and their usual Presents. — I hope that all will come safe to you according to the Invoice enclosed, the Ships hope have this year been much retarded by contrary Winds and a severe Winter — They Salute you & the Brethren and request and recommend you earnestly in their prayers to the Blessing both on your person, and on your Labours in the Gospel, wherein I give me — leave to join most heartily and affectionately who am their Secretary and Reverend Sir in every good office within my Power

Your very faithful humble Servt.

P. S.

Henry Newman

What is said above to you the Society desire may be also understood by said to the Missionaries to whom you are desired to communicate this Letter of Instructions together with those formerly sent for conducting the Mission at Cudulore and that you not only industriously cultivate a Harmony with each other, but with yo former Colleague at Madras, & yo fellow Labourers in the Gospel at Tranquebar who are likewise exhorted to live in the same Harmony & that you are loyal in oblivion all former Animosities.

Mr Kierander had six mos. of his Salary 22. 10 — advanced to him here & is the reason there is but six mos. Salary sent in pa. of 8. as by the Invoice in a Bagg by itself, & for fear of accidents the Society have ordered their whole Cargo to be insured here against all Events to the prejudice of the Mission, so that you may not want credit in case of any misfortune, which they pray God to prevent.

my self with sending 2. Pamphlets lately published for January acceptable to you without I could send you the Key for opening the fictitious names in the Speeches, which they say are general genuine and well known amongst the City Politicians; such as

By the Colchester Capt.n Mitchel-field.

To the Reverend Messrs Dal, Bosse, Pressier, Walther, Obuch, Wiedebrock & Kohlhoff,
at Tranquebar.

Reverend Sirs

Your Letter of the 30.th Decemb. 1738 to the Society came safe to hand, and the account it gave of the Success of the Mission under your Care was very acceptable; and they thank you for it being not a little pleas'd to understand that the late Commotions in the Kingdom of Tanshaver are not like to obstruct or much affect your progress, but as it may please God to order it, there is reason to hope it may in the course of things turn to the advancement of your design to discourage the Idolatry of the Heathen and dispose them better to attend to the simplicity of your

your Instructions in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The progress you have made is very considerable for the time you have been engaged in the service of the Mission, but the greatest harvest seems to be hoped for from the success of your schools after 2. or 3. Generations are past when those who have been educated in them shall be grown up and mixed by marriages among their own Country people.

The Society are glad to understand that the Dutch in your Neighbourhood are so well disposed to the propagating of Christianity and that you maintain the good Correspondence you do with them; Baron Van Imhoff's example at Columbo is very laudable; and the Society will be glad to know the success of his endeavours in Ceylon, and that other Governors in East India are disposed to follow his Example. The Character used among the Singaleans which you sent a specimen of, seems very different from that of the Malabarian, and the Warugian which prevails in some parts of India has its peculiarities which occasions great Labour and pains to the Missionaries to be Masters of before they can acquire the Languages necessary to be able to address the Natives in their own Tongues; the Society would be glad to know whether these difficulties may not be obviated by printing each Language in the Roman Character as the Europeans now generally do the Language of each Country respectively, though formerly they differ'd in Character as much as they do now in Language, a reconciliation so for would very much facilitate your Labours and in great measure lessen the Expence of all impressions of the Bible or any part of it, when the same Types may be made to serve very different Languages.
The natives of every Country are generally tenacious of their mother Tongue, because the consent of the common people (who learn it only by the ear for conversation sake) must be had to abolish or change any language, but it is not so with the Character which is govern'd by the literati of every Country who as they are better Subjects are better disposed to fall into a common convenience, concerning which the Society would therefore be glad to have your Sentiments.

Mr Kiernander [illegible] of the Society we are [illegible] with him goes Mr Fabricius and Mr Ziegenhagen by Order of the at Copenhagen to visit the Mission at Tranquebar, may it please God to send them safely, and of their arrival the Society be glad to hear. but in case of any accident by the mortality either of the Society's Missionaries at Madras or Tanjore the Society particularly recommend it to you Brethren to use your to supply such Vacancy till the Society can be informed there and give directions therein, or till Mr Kiernander be qualify'd by his Skill in the Languages to take upon him that duty. You not wonder at the confidence they put in you for this Service after so many years experience of your prudence and Success at Tranquebar, and that you may be fully warranted to give such Assistance when wanted the Society will apply to the College at Copenhagen to give you Leave so to do.

The Society desire your acceptance of the Things sent in the Colchester according to the Invoice enclosed to which Mr Ziegenhagen has added a large Chest of Silver according to the particulars therein signify'd & 2 chests of Beer and some other Articles which could not so well be put up in the Case D.N.
N°. 1. of printing Paper &c. and are therefore pack'd up in the Chest E.M. N°. 8. for Fort St. George to avoid the expence of Sealing by the Company's Officers which is requir'd by every pack

May you long enjoy Health and Success in the prosecution of your Labours for propagating the Gospel, and establishing the true Christianity among the Heathen are the constant Desires of the Society, wherein joyning most sincerely

Reverend Sirs

Your most Obed.t

terms till they go on bord for the Voyage.

To the Reverend Mr. Schultze London. 31. March 1740 at Madras near Fort St. George.

Reverend Sir

The variety of Characters used among the Natives of East India, has occasioned great Labour and pains to the Missionaries to be Masters of them before they can acquire
own own Tongues; the Society would [illegible] their difficulties may not be [illegible] printing each Language in the Roman Character now [illegible] all over Europe where the Characters of each Country [illegible] differ'd as much as they do now in Language. If [illegible] agreement could obtain in India it would very much facilitate your Labours, and lessen the expence of all impressions of the Bible or any part of it, when [illegible] very different Languages.

By the Cesar Capt. Cummings

The Natives of every Country are generaley tenacious of their mother Tongue, because the consent of the Common people (who learn it only by the Ear for the ease of Conversation) must be had to abolish or change any Language, but it is not so with Types or Characters which are generally governd by the Literati of every Country, who as they are better Judges are better disposd to fall into any common convenience not only in the shape of each Type but in the series of the Alphabet or whether it should be A. b. g. d. as the Greeks, or A. b. c. d. as the Romans in Europe used; all which in their original were purely arbitrary, but occasion vast burthens to the memory where they are intricate without any reason void of the simplicity and uniformity, which the Europeans are now happily agreed in. Concerning which the Society would be glad to have your sentiments, and whether Children or natives will be made to learn their mother Tongue in the European Character as in the Malabarick, Singalean, Wanyian, or any other used in India.

I have wrote to you at large by the Colchester in answer to your Letter to the Society, and the things you desird as per Invoice in the same Ship which I wish safe to your hands. The Missionaries at Tranquebar desird 4. Hour Glasses, but their desires coming too late to hand to be served with Glasses made on purpose as yours were, if you will spare them 4. Hour Glasses I will furnish you with that number next year to make good the number of 8. now sent. I directed the hour Glass maker to make 2. of them for 2. hours instead of one, presuming that might be sometimes convenient to you; but if not I'll send no more of that sort. I am with best wishes for your Prosperity

Above is copy of mine of ye 20. March by the Charborough, I am now by order of the Society to desire you would give their Thanks to the Ministers and Churchwardens of St Mary's at Fort St Geo. for the account of the Society's Cash in their Church Stock transmitted by the last Ships, and for the annual Improvement thereon made.

The

The Society have formerly requested the Court of Directors to favour and Encourage Christianity in their Territory as should be greatly desired for Success under their Direction, and they were so kind as to give instructions accordingly, but whether there has been any opportunity for putting in practice such a benevolent Purpose is much to be doubted, and you will be so kind as to inform them if there have.

Bartlet Buildings

Rev.d Sirs

Mr. Gueister's Letter of the 5.th of Jan.y & 17 Jan.y and 12.th Feb.y 1739/40. with his Journal came safe to hand, and were all read to the Society who referr'd 'em to a Committee to be considered when and answer'd and they readily ordered all the things therein desired to be bought, and sent by one of the latter Ships; accordingly they are sent by the Kent Capt.n Robson as you will see by the Invoice herew.th sent. She has been unexpectedly detain'd by contrary Winds from pursuing her Voyage so soon as was wish'd.

The Society hope that Mr. Kiernander & Mess.rs Fabritius and Leghlin are safely arriv'd ere this comes to your hands to y.r great comfort of their fellow Missionaries of which they will be glad to hear.

The

[illegible] Country without which it does not [illegible] any considerable improvement on the Malabar Coast of the Excellency and faithfulness of the Christian Ryots to their Inclinations and Obligations which have been kept.

In Mr Quiester's Journal of the 6th January 1738 he acquaints the Society with a long conversation he had with Braman at Devanapatnam but omits to inform what it produced which the Society would have been glad to know why he entertained a Catechist so long as mentioned the 7th Oct.
1739. who was not capable of the business.

The Society very much approve of Mr Quiester's Custom of reading every Sunday afternoon to his Children some part Portions of the holy Scriptures and particularly the Historical Books of the old Testament w.h remarks thereon as he can may require, but since in the hot season that duty cannot be attended after dining w.h the Governour and walking from from the Company's Garden to Cudulore the Society recommend to Mr Quiester and his Colleague to excuse themselves from any of that honour during the hot season rather than to omit so necessary a service to their Christian Religion among their Children

The Bibles and Common Prayer Books which Mr Quiester desired for a Mission at Cudulore are sent in the Chest mark'd EM No. 8. as mention'd in the Invoice, particulars of the Charge of which is herewith sent and the same when paid for to be charged to the Credit of the Religion.

Your Salaries for the ensuing year are sent Mr Quiester inter alia by the Kent in EM. No. 13. in Bags mark'd as in the Invoice.

I shew'd that part of Mr Quiester's Letter of the 12. Feb. which related to Mr Hollis to him, and have desired him to answer it. I have likewise complained to the Bengal Merchants of the Loss sustained by you and your Brethren in the failure of the Beer sent to you, and he has promis'd to prevent it as much as possible for the future.

The Society will be glad to hear that the Climate agrees with Mr Kiernander & his Companions to last Indies

By the King William Capt. Sanders and Scarborough Capt. Westcott I acknowledg'd the Receit of your Letters of 24th Sept. 1739. the 5th January and 15th February following with a Copy of your Journal in English and the Acct. of your Receits and Disbursments for the year 1739.

The Society have considered of the Contents of all your Letters and Journal, and are glad to find you don't complain of the want of your health as formerly, and that you keep up your School at Madras, of which they would be glad to hear it has pleas'd God to make you more or more of those instructed under your care to become able Catechists and Teachers of the Gospel like Pastor Aaron in the Tabernacle of Prayer.

[illegible] at this Board to make any remark upon the Letters received.

Under the Article of 1st. of May 1739. you say that being Good Friday it was more than 2 hours after the Service of the Church in the forenoon before the Children could be communicate at the Lords Table. The Society desire you would explain your self on this head, viz. how often the Holy Sacrament is administred? and whether it is administred, whether you do not always admit both sexes to partake of it together as is done in Europe, and allowing persons who are Ripe to communicate?

12th. July. The same year you say Chandrial who had been educated 5. years in the Mission School, had received the privilege of praying openly in the appointed hours of the week for Prayer. That you would explain this, and whether you admit women to pray in the publick Congregations at of Divine Service or only in a private manner at the time their Catechising in School?

12 August. You say you know but one Boy that begins to give good hopes of his becoming an unfeigned Christian. Is your mean this only as the only Boy since you have attended the Mission at Madras?

31. Oct. 1739. What you mean by a certain heathen Priest of Boreah near Tranquebar travelling as a Friar among his Countrymen to Fort St. George whether he was Christian? and what became of him after he left you?

As to building a Church for the Christians at Madras the Society would be glad their Fund were in a condition to remit Money for such a service But the Benefaction to it have of late been so low that it is with difficulty they raise enough to answer your Salaries with the ordinary expenses of the Mission for which reason they recommend to you the greatest Oeconomy and frugality possible, and not to draw more out of the Church Stock then is absolutely necessary.

The Society are glad to hear you keep up the number of 50. Children still in your School, and have ordered me to recommend of your Book as may be fit for the Country people to the Eastern & Southern Parts of Rhode Island County.

I have forwarded all the Letters you sent under cover to me as they were directed & for which I hope you will be informed from whom they were delivered to.

The Society were glad to understand that you had met with an Assistant in Quality of a Steward viz.t Sr John Henry Shutte so well recommended from Hanover and will be further pleased to hear from you of his answering yo.r expectation.

May you long enjoy yo.r health, and have the pleasure of giving Joy to the Society by the Success of the Mission under your Care, and the encreasement of the Kingdom of our dear Saviour among the Heathen are the earnest wishes of the Society as well as of

The Society have order'd Your Arabick New Testaments to be sent to you that you may be able to oblige any Person w.th a Copy that is able if more copies can be procured of use to you, they signify your desires.

The Letters from E India by the Ships Prince William are most of them come to hand. Those from Fort St George being read last Tuesday I was ordered to send you Extracts of them to you which I have now done & to request Opinion of the Proposal for sending a new Missionary to Fort St. George. What the expedient for raising Money for the Service of the Mission may produce time will shew, but I doubt the general decay of Trade, the Expence of the War in hand & the prospect of the Increase of Publick Taxes, with other things will prevent that flow of Benefactions which the Circular in favour of the Saltzburgers produced 1732, 33, and 34.

There have been great Convulsions among the Natives in India which has occasioned a great resort of them to the European Settlements for protection & may rather help than hinder the progress of the Mission, at least I don't find any Complaint from the Missionaries on that Head.

Mr Schultze has drawn 500 Pagodas out of the Church Stock at Fort St George April 1740. besides the 700 Pagodas in his account 1739. tho' his Salary was remitted to him in Money for that Year, Nor has he made any improvements to the Mission House at Madras or Remittances to Fort St. David since that time but has Sold a house belonging to the Mission for 45 Pag. 27 Fan.
So that in effect what Money was ordered by the Society to be paid into the Church Stock is drawn out again without any apparent Reason for it. Nor do I remember the Society have ever given an unlimited Credit to the Missionaries on that Fund.

By the last account from the Church Bookeeper the Society have but 1058 Pagod. left in it, which I mention that you may better Judge of the State of the Society's Cash at home & abroad for sending a new Missionary thither for Schultze

Landing of which is postponed to next Sunday. I have only one small Letter from Tranquebar referring to several Matters no yet come to hand, but all things seem to be quiet among them & the Missionaries all in health &c.

P.S. I have sent an Extract of a Letter of the 19th to Dr Chandler & will then send the Books referred to in your and

The money & goods for your selves this year will be sent on the Capt. Gilbert by whom you may expect to receive a more particular account, if it please God to send her safe to Fort St George. The Society being informed of the ill state of Mr Schultze's health under the fatigue he has prosecuted the Mission at Madras have desired leave of the College at Copenhagen to permit one of your Brethren to remove thither to supply his place when he is determined to resign his further care of the Mission there, and shall desire to be succeeded by one of the Missionaries at Tranquebar, the College at Copenhagen have readily in the most kind manner signify'd their consent to your granting such assistance till the Society are in a condition to send out another Missionary to Madras. And for the encouragement of such an Assistant in the work of the Mission they have directed their Correspondents at Fort St George to pay him out of their fund in the Church Stock there at the rate of 60 l. Sterling p. An. during his residence at Madras from the time of his arrival to take care of the Mission there, & that he be paid his traveling Charges from Tranquebar to Fort St George.

You see by this what confidence the Society have in your experience and prudence for conducting a Mission that has by the Blessing of God been so prosperous under your direction at Tranquebar, & they doubt not but the same Blessing may attend your Labours at Madras till it shall please God to enable them to send another Missionary to Fort St George. I have herewith covered an Invoice of what the Society this year have been enabled to transmit to India for the Service of the Mission, which by their order is consigned to yourselves, & they hope for the Continuance of your kind Offices to receive & convey to the Missionaries respectively what is directed to them. Mr Schultze & Mr Howard by their Letters having informed the Society of the ill State of Mr Schultze's health, tho' they cannot yet obtain Mr Schultze's desire by sending a Missionary, they have endeavoured by the following expedient to supply that defect.

The Revd Mr

which I herewith send a copy. In pursuance of this Advice have ordered me to acquaint Mr Schultze that unless to quit his Labours in the Mission they have obtained Leave College at Copenhagen for one of the Missionaries at Tranquebar to supply his place whenever he shall desire it, and they are wrote to accordingly to favour their Mission Madras with their Assistance upon such Signification In which case I am ordered to request you would give direction for issuing out of the Society's Cash in the Church Chest at Fort St for subsisting of such Missionary as shall be sent from Tranque at the rate of 60 l. p an. from the time of his Arrival at Madra during his residence there, and that he be allowed on the Society's Acct. his travelling Charges from Tranquebar to Fort St George.

The Society, you will perceive by this, are desirous out of to Mr. Schultze for his past Services to leave it to his own when he will resign the Care of the Mission & desire the aid of one of his Brethren at Tranquebar to supply his place the Society are enabled to send a Missionary from Europe

Messrs Guiester & Kiernander having signified that they shall want about 50 l. Sterling to compleat the Mission house at Cudulore I am ordered to desire you would remit it to the Wardens & Church wardens at Fort St George to answer their Bill for what may be necessary for that Service, as far as that sum.
You will see by the Invoice what parcels are designd for Tranquebar & what for the missions at Madras & Cudulore, & that a few small parcels that could not well be packed in either of the Tranquebar Chests are put up in EM. N°. 7. to be conveyed from Fort St George as you have opportunity of doing, without the expense & formality of sealing & inspection by Officers which we are obliged to submit to here.
Silver is so scarce & dear by Reason of the War with Spain that it with Difficulty the little sum now sent was obtained for the of the Missionaries & the overplus being 85 l. they recommend to your care lodged in the Church Stock with the usual Power of Interest to answer the Services now sent are ordered to be ensured by the Society for fear of any accident in the Voyage to Fort St. George. The Society thank the Vestry of St Mary for indulging them the trouble they are so kind as to take in receiving & emitting the Sums lodged in their Hands, & desire to be favoured with an account of the State of their Cash there for their Government in future

Chest Ent. N.o 12. of the Mission money a little Bagg of 60 Ounces of Silver for John Thursday at Fort St George but they soon convinced me that it was done by leave of the Court of Directors & that freight was paid here to the Company by the Father of the Young Man to whom it was directed, & that the same would be signified in the Manifest to be sent to the Governour of Fort St George.

To the Rev.d
Mr. Schultze at Madras

London 26. Jan. 1741/42.

Rev.d Sir

I am favour'd with two Letters from You by our last Ships from India, directed to me as Secretary to the Society for promoting Christian Knowledge: & am by their particular order not only to return you their very thankful acknowledgements, but likeways to assure you at the same time, that nothing gives 'em more satisfaction, than to hear that the work of God in your hands goes on well, that he has been with You under your many difficulties: & that tho' your Mission makes no great worldly shew, yet it has, like the true Church & Kingdom of God, taken good root in the Hearts & minds of such as you have convicted or educated, so that they are in a fair way of bringing the fruit of the Gospel among them unto perfection. It is therefore with much Concern, Sir, that they receive your Complaint of growing old, or past your labours:

perfecting what you have begun, the prayers of this indeed the more from the Heart, & more de make, that the Converse in Heaven, & their Salvation in the Business you have Day & night at heart, & if it be so it is not , be to prefer your perseverance in it by any more easy & inv affecting motive: not excepting this that you will thereby (in a perhaps than in any other way) the glory of God on Earth, & work for yourself a more exceeding weight & crown of eternal happiness honour in his Heavenly Kingdom.

However if you find your self upon the maturest delibe tion so worn out (which God forbid) unfit to be just discharg age & Infirmities under the Burthen of your Duty, the Soci having a most grateful sense of your past services, must ask nothing more of you, than to send together with your own reas such timely notice of your retiring from it to your Brethren at Tranquebar, that one of them may come & release you fr this Charge; receiving the whole of the Mission, & the things be longing to it under his Care, & together with them the wise & d vice & Directions you can give him for his Conduct in so impo a trust. This is the best and only provision the Society can m their present Circumstances make for the Continuance & e furtherance of their Mission at Madras: & they think them selves happy in having leave to make so good a one by the kindness of the College at Copenhagen. For as to the Expence of sending a New Missionary by the E. India Ships now sailing to Fort St. George their Fund at present will not enable them to support that, or the Charge of maintaining two Missionaries there: or if it would they fear a Young Missionary could be of little service to their main purpose, since Mr. Hutter the Catechist performs his Duty so well, as to be reckoned by you self, as good as one, or two Young Missionaries, so that it will be easy for him, with the help of those Boys you have well fitted for School Masters, & Catechists to carry on the work of the Mission provided there always be but one able & experienced Director, (having as you have at Heart the glory of God & the Salvation of Souls) at the Head of it. & where could the Society look for such a one, if you fail them, but from Tranquebar, where you had the beginning of your attainments in this good Employment.

For your own

Copy of Mr Fraser's Letter in the Book of Extracts of Letters &c. No. 13. and the Original N°. 16217.

you have inclosed to them, into those Eastern Languages, which could be done at first without uncommon pains & fatigue: & therefore they would wish you henceforward, not only to spare your self brain, but to employ the remainder of your Studies, time & strength, in the more immediate work of your Ministry, which would in all probability give you, by bodily exercise, better Spirits, & at the same time more effectually promote that Spiritual Business, you have Day & Night at heart, the Conversion of Souls. For instance, why should you not spare your self for this Business, & not prosecute too far at the Hazard of your own health, & at no little expence to the Society) the translating & copying of the New Testament into the Hindostan Language, which, tho it be the vulgar Dialect in the Mogul's Country, is nevertheless (having no Character peculiar to it) seldom or ever used in writing, as the Learned Mr Fraser, who is just returned from thence, (Copy of his Letter to me inclosed) & as well as others, assures us, in the inclosed, & therefore any Books translated into it, can be of little or no service in propagating the Gospele. Besides, could the Gospel be propagated far into the Mogul's Country; why even then Translations should be made, not into the Hindostan, but into the Banian or Persic Tongue, as being the two Languages of most universal use in writing there. But considering the present state of the Madras Mission, & its Funds we can propose to extend the Blessing of it no farther than a thorough Skill in the Malabarian & Portuguese tongue can reach, in the Neighbourhood thereof.

Having thus, Sir, given you the Sentiments of the Society upon the Subject of your Letters, I have nothing more in command from them but to remind you, that tho' some Misfortune or other they rec. no Journal from you this year, when they could most have wished for it, as they are now making Collections for the Support of their Mission by Circular Letters to all their Corresponding Members; such Journals being, as you heretofore observed, a great satisfaction to former Benefactors, & an Encouragement to New ones.

The Collections already remitted have not as yet answered the Expectations or the Wants of the Society; however they are not without hope of better success, notwithstanding the many pressing calls to every kind of Charity within this Kingdom, as well as the extraordinary Demands of a most expensive War, to say

[illegible] you for, & joyn with you in those prayers for the [illegible] in all the means they use, and with [illegible] may best to convey it to the highest degree [illegible] these means they always reckon upon your [illegible] with the most prudent & frugal Oeconomy, as one of the chief cipal: & therefore they heartily beg of God to blefs you with Strength, & Life, which prayer no one can put up with greater sincerity & fervency than

Mess.rs Gurcitter and Kiernander at Cudulore

London 26. Jan. 1741/42.

Rev.d Sirs

Your joynt & seperate Letters to me, together with your Journal, Accounts, &c. came safe by one of Ship from India. I have laid them all before the Society promoting Christian Knowledge, from whom I have also Command to return their most thankful acknowledgements as well for that favour as for your Zeal, pains & care in the Mission at Cudulore. & to assure you, at the same time, that nothing can more oblige em, or give them truer pleasure, than to hear of your Health & that you go on together in this work of the Lord with Success & unanimety, a remem bering always the very unhappy effects of that Dissention, which happen'd some Years ago, among your Brethren & Fellow Labourers in the Mission at Madras. They observe therefore with Satisfaction the prudent & friendly Steps you both take in your Conferences & Journal to preserve & cultivate a good harmony between your selves as well as the prosperous methods you jointly & seperately pursue in your private Studies & publick Labours for the more effectual planting & propagating the Christian Religion, not only within the Walls of your Mission, but in the Country around you.

However

[illegible] that one of the chief [illegible] [illegible] which you meet with among the [illegible] those of the manners of the European Christians who are settled there. But it is to be hoped that they may by the grace of God in time overcome even this prejudice by wrong judgment on true Faith, from what they will see & learn of you & of those educated under your wonted & Instructions, when once you come to get an intimate acquaintance with the Heathen Parents whose Children you teach: or meet with more favourable opportunities of extending your Conversation & Doctrine, among the Natives, after making your selves Masters of their Language: I do not mean nice Criticks in it, of which there can be no need; but only that you be able to talk it fluently; or at least so well as to have your meaning clearly understood by them. To such a proficiency in the Malabarian Tongue, Mr Gueisler seems to have attain'd already: & the Society make no doubt from the extraordinary improvements Mr Kiernander has in so short a time made in the English & Portuguese, but that he will ere long do the like in the Malabaric, & return the kind assistance now given him as a Scholar by his Colleague, by taking an equal share of his Duty both as a Catechist, & a Preacher.

Besides these General Monitions & Directions, the Society have little in particular to say, Revd Sirs, unless it be to repeat their former requests, that you will in the Oeconomy of your Mission be as frugal & careful, as ~~your~~ Circumstances will permit, considering that your Buildings alone have already cost above £413 Sterling, & will scarce be finish'd for 500 more; But what is worse the Funds of the Society for the Common support of their Missions are almost exhausted: & the Conduct of Mr Hollis may teach you, how little reliance is to be had on the most promising expectations from Occasional Benefactors. However on the good providence of God, they may, & do still rely, which has often done wonderous things in furtherance of their excellent, and Christian Designs: & in humble confidence of his Blessing it is, that they are now Soliciting Contributions to their Missions, by Circular Letters to all their Corresponding Members: believing in Hope, even against Hope, in the Human Course of things considering the many pressing calls there are to every kind of Charity

[illegible] a most expensive Work to any [illegible] from whence most liberal supplies have been [illegible]

The best wishes and the most fervent prayers of the Society attend you both, that God may be with you in your Health & in all undertakings for his Glory & the Salvation of Souls. Your worthy friend Mr. Ziegenhagen salutes you in the most affectionate manner; who has had as you desired a Copy of your Journal.

The Society make no Doubt but that you have it [illegible] in mind & at your Heart to keep up a Constant & friendly Correspondence, as well with Mr. Schultze at Madras, as with the Missionaries at Tranquebar, in regard not only to the great Influence such a Spirit among you may have upon the Heathen, but likewise to the Advantages & assistances you may receive from one another in your Common Work. It is indeed with pleasure that the Society observe you to be forward to do this of your own accord, so that I shall conclude with assuring You, that I am, as far as it is in my power, or my prayers to be

By the Lynn Capt.n Gilbat

I had the honour of receiving both Your kind Letters of the 6th Jan.y 1740/41 by the last Ships from India which being communicated to the Society they have ordered me to thank you for them, & for the Continuance of your Protection & good will in favour of the Mission. They are very sensible of the Difficulties you wisely suggest attending the Conversion of the Heathen to Christianity wherein so many prejudices of Education are to be overcome that without the power of working Miracles, as the first Propagators of Christianity did, it would seem a vain thing to attempt it, were there not a just expectation of seeing the promises of God in time fulfilled that time may be already known, that we are the professed Followers of that wise Founder in Europe, & in our Assemblies there read & urge his Divine precepts & Doctrines tho' under different Sects & Parties. & the dispersion of the Jews all the World over, are a standing Monument of the Truth of the Scripture predictions concerning them from Moses to our Saviour.

As the Roman Conquests in Europe & some parts of Asia & Affrica, the the Languages were so friendly to Christianity, was a means used by Provi-dence to facilitate the propagation of it in the primitive times; so it may please God by the present enlarged Commerce of the European Nations, to ac-complish his gracious purposes both for Jews & Pagans. Those that truly pray for the coming of Christs Kingdom cannot give better proofs of their wishes than by using their best Endeavours to recommend Re-ligion by their Example, & to make the Scriptures known in all Languages, as the most likely means to open the Eyes of those who are in Darkness; & tho' at present we see little fruit of our Labours, God can make them as Successful as the Art of printing has been to scatter Knowl-edge far & wide by means unthought, as well as unknown to former ages. But these Reflections may be spared to one that has so well considered the Course of things, & therefore I need add no more, but that the Society entertain Hopes their feeble efforts in favour of Christianity will gain some Ground in India, while men distin-guished by their good Sense, & wise examples preside in the Terri-tories under the Direction of the East India Company, in whose Service may your administration be always prosperous & happy

Your's of the 16th of Octr hath been immediately communicated to his Excellency the President & all the Members of the College, who unanimously approved of & agreed to the Motion made in your Letter by the Honourable The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, & as it happens the Princess Charlotta Amelia, being ready to Sail, the College hath actually wrote to the Missionaries at Tranchenbar & sent Instructions to chuse the fittest amongst themselves, which is afterwards to hold himself ready to go to Madras whenever he is desired from the Society, & to stay there & serve the Mission till another Missionary, sent by the Society, he is released.

The College hath very earnestly recommended this Affair to the Missionaries, being sensible of the unhappy consequences if any dis-advantageous report of the State of the Mission at Madras should get abroad;

and furthermore desired to signify to them the great satisfaction we can in every Respect express of the Care they have taken of the Mission at Madras, this is the great Return, we can make to all the Members of the Society for their constant favours & particular kindness to the Protestant Mission; You will be pleased, Sir, to assure the Society of the great pleasure the College takes in the uninterrupted good Harmony that hath subsisted for many Years between them & the Society, & of the sincere Desire they have

1742/3

Reverend Sir.

I have laid before you your last with an inclosed Account of your Receipts and Disbursements in 1741. before the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge: and am to tell you at their command, in Answer to it, that it is with great concern they find in it so slender an Information of the State of their Mission under your Care, not even that accompanyed with any Journal for two years past, notwithstanding what I wrote to you by their express Order upon that Subject.

From these circumstances they cannot but have somewhat of a Suspicion, that it may be in such a State as you are willing to conceal, for fear it should affect your own Credit: and in this Suspicion they are confirmed by some hints in Mr. Howards Letters, as well as by the entire Silence of all their other Corresponding Members. However such is the good opinion of Society have of you from the knowledge of your extraordinary Talents and Qualifications for the work of a Missionary, and of your former zeal in converting the Heathen to Christianity, a thing, you always professed yourself to have day and night at heart; that they are disposed to hope and believe the best of you: and that if their Mission be upon the decline, this must be owing not to any fault or neglect in yourself, but to some other unfavourable, but unavoidable Incidents; so that y.e chief Motive of your long stay, after taking several Resolutions to the contrary, must have been to restore it to as flourishing a Condition, as it was ever in.

Upon presuming this, Sir, to be the Motive of your [illegible] Society make us [illegible] Cautions they gave you last year [illegible] that you will be no longer diverted, if you have been, from the due and constant Attendance on the Work of your publick Station as their Missionary: by private Studies of any kind; not even by the Translating the Scriptures themselves into other Languages, than such are immediately requisite to that end; or by making Copies of Translations which can be of no present use, and may for ought we know be useless till they finish.

Besides, the Funds appropriated by the Society to their Missions at Madras and Cudalore continue so low, notwithstanding their best endeavours to raise them, as to fall extremely short of their annual and ordinary Remittances, that they have (besides having what they had in the Church Stock at Fort St. George to be called by you) been likewise obliged to break in upon the Funds at home for their General Designs. — Till Providence therefore shall enable them by more liberal Supplys to extend their Views of Promoting Christian knowledge in foreign parts, they must be content to do the best they can within the reach of those two Missions, where a thorough skill in the Malabarian and Portuguese Languages will be sufficient for their Missionaries. For the same reason too, I am to renew their former requests to you to use all possible frugality even in your necessary Disbursements; and not only so, but to order you to strike off the Salaries or Wages of the Hindostan Writer, and of every other Writer or Copyist, who is not of immediate Service to their Mission: and to save all that can be in the Expence of copying Books which they observe rises very high. — Nay besides this they are of opinion, that you can have no so many Assistant Catechists & Schoolmasters as you have lately hired, unless you give up more time than you ought to your private Studies and affairs; considering that Mr Hutter performs his duty so well, as to be owned by [illegible] Congregation [illegible] you [illegible] have lately been reduced from 50 to 25 who are at present no more than 30.

Thus much for your own future Conduct in the Mission. But I am likewise further to tell you, that if you are so disabled by Age or ill health, as not to do your own duty without such extraordinary assistance: or if you are strongly inclin'd to return to your own Native Country in Europe, you have their free Consent to quit that Station whenever you please, only taking timely care to commit the Trust you leave into the best hands the Society can think of.— Their thoughts indeed are somewhat different this year from the last: So that instead of your sending to Tranquebar, they desire you to dispatch the earliest Notice of your final Resolutions to come to Mr Gericke, who will have their Orders to remove with all Convenient Speed from Cudalore, and to take the whole Mission at Madras, and the things belonging to it under his Care and management; a trust they doubt not he will be equal to by your Directions, added to his own Improvements, and the assistance of Mr Hutton.

And now, Sir, I have little else to say, but to assure you that the Society wish for nothing more than an ability to do every thing, that can in any manner contribute to spread the saving knowledge of Christ and his Gospel throughout all parts of the East Indies, as well as in the neighbourhood of Fort St. George & Fort St. David.— But in this they must wait God's own wise and appointed time, doing what they can in the mean while towards carrying on their Missions in those places to perfection by the most prudent Oeconomy of the Funds they have, and of ye Benefactions they receive: and I must observe to you, that towards the encrease of these, nothing is more likely to contribute, under their Misfortune of their Letters and [illegible] of his own good Will and Pleasure, to answer [illegible] yet been done, or than we can ask or think. Tomorrow y[e] Society will not be wanting in the Care and management of what they have considering how little human prospect there is of extraordinary Supplys at present, since their own Circular Letters to all the Members have brought in no Sums equal to their wants: and the incorporated Society (who are as zealous in the same good Work in the Western, as We are in the Eastern Indies) have been this year making Collections for it in every Parish throughout the Kingdom by Royal Licence to say nothing of the heavy burden of Taxes, that is laid both on England and Germany towards carrying on the War. But to finish this Lady Letter, you will I hope receive with safety, the Money, the Presents, and the other things the Society have sent for your own and their Ministers use, according to the Invoice enclosed, tho the Ships have been retarded by the War as long this year as the last. They Salute you with all kindness and respect: and recommend you constantly in their prayers to the keeping & y[e] blessing of Almighty God, wherein give me leave to join most heartily & affectionately, for who am in every good Office within my power, as their Secretary

Rev. Sirs

I am to thank you in the Name of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge for the favour of the Letters they received from you last year by the East India Ships this day hands of the 8th Sept. 1741. and 19 January following together with your Journals and Accounts. And in Answer to these I have it in Command from them to tell you, that it is with great satisfaction they observe the pains you both take in qualifying yourselves for the Work of the Mission, as well as in y execution of it. They can't indeed but wish and hope to see more abundant Fruits from your Labours; however they herein wait with patience and without distrust God's own Appointed time and blessing; continuing in the mean while their fervent prayers to him to open a greater and more effectual door of Faith in his Son by you unto the Gentiles in those parts. In this hope they exhort you to go on, and not be weary in y Work of the Lord. As to New Instructions, there can at present be no need of them; considering how Strict a regard you have hitherto paid to those that have been already given you in their former Letters, as well as in their Standing Orders; so that what I have now in particular Charge from them is, to remind you, that there is still as much necessity as ever for the most prudent and frugal Oeconomy; and if it may be for some retrenchment in the Expences of your Mission; because the Fund appropriated to it at home, and in the Church Stock at Fort St George is almost exhausted: and then appears at present in all human views, but little likelyhood of recruiting it by any extraordinary

Supplys of Provisions, Stores, &c. [illegible]

Members have taught us no less regard to their wants, and the Society (who are as zealous in the same good Work in the Western as in the Eastern Indies) have done this year more than Collection for it in every Parish thro' out their Kingdom by Royal Mandate. To say nothing of the very heavy burden of Taxes that is laid upon in England and Germany towards carrying on the War.

I have indeed but one thing more of great consequence to communicate to you, which is that that Mr. Schultz has determined, as probably the wife, to quit the Service of the Society at Madras in Order to return to his Native Country, Mr. Gruenter must then hold himself in readiness to repair thither upon the first Notice, and to take upon himself the whole Charge of that Mission with such Assistants only for the present, as he shall find there.

And in this case it is the Society's further pleasure, that Mr. Kiernander be left in the same Charge at Cudalore, if Mr Gruester judge him sufficiently qualified to undertake it; if otherwise, I am to make it the Society's earnest request to the Missionaries at Tranquebar that one of them may be spared, upon hearing from you, to go & take up his abode there, till Mr. Kiernander have made under his instructions, directions & examples, such a proficiency as will enable him to discharge that duty alone. — Nay further should Mr. Schultz be already Sailed for Europe, and a Missionary from Tranquebar be now supplying his place, I must desire him to remove to Cudalore upon Mr Gruesters coming, if Mr. Kiernander be not able to go on there without him, but if he can, he may then return forthwith to his own Charge at Tranquebar. — The Society will think themselves highly Obliged by such good Offices to any one of the Danish Missionaries: and would have his whole Expences in their Service and his Journeys placed to the General Account of their own Missions.

I have nothing more to add, but that Mr. Gruester [illegible] Mahey What is to discharge both your Salaries, and to defray the other expences of your Mission.

I shall write & hope come safe to you, according to my Intention in the enclosed Letter, tho' probably not sooner than last year, considering that our East India Ships have been so kept restrained by the Spanish Men of War. You are to look upon all y.
Money remitted hence, beyond your Salaries, as a joint Stock for the use of both the Missions at Madras & Cudalore, and to apply it in such proportions, as the necessities of each require. I had almost forgot to ask you a Question, that was started upon reading your Letters, whether the Books sent from hence for your Library, or to be dispersed, would not last longer, and be more Secure from Vermin in your Climate if bound in Vellum, rather than Leather?

The Society Salute you both with all Respects, and kindness: and heartily beg of God to bless you, not only in the Success of your Labours, but with Life, Health & Strength, in which Prayer no one can join with more Sincerity & Affection than

I have taken the Liberty herewith to cover an Invoice of the Things sent this year by the Heathcote for the Service of the Mission by Order of the Society, which are all recommended to your care and good Offices to be conveyd to the Missionaries as they are directed, vizt all the Articles marked DM to the Danish Missionaries at Tranquebar, and those mark'd EM. to the English Missionaries at Madras & Cudalore.

The Letters I wrote last year of ye 28 January 1740 [illegible] inform you of the measures taken by the Society to supply the place of a chief Missionary at Madras, when Mr Schultz should think fit to quit the Service as had been often signified to them he intended, but in consideration of the present lowness of the Funds both in England and at Fort St George for supporting the Mission the Society have been obliged to alter those measures in some respects which I cannot better explain, than by acquainting you with the Instructions sent to Messrs Guerister & Kiernander at Cudulore on that head (in a Seperate paper) in conforming to which the Society earnestly desire your kind Assistance & pains in execution what is propos'd as well as Advice to lodge the overplus Money now remitted beyond what will discharge their Salaries so as may best answer the future Service of the Mission.

The Society being informed it has pleas'd God to [illegible] that was formerly desird that you would recommend some

To Mess.rs Guerike & Schwartzkopff at Cudalore

Reverend Sirs

As the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge were pleased (upon the death of Mr. Newman) to commit to my care their Correspondence with all the Protestant Missionaries in the East Indies, I am by their Order, to acknowledge the Receipt of the several Letters they received from you both last year, together with your Journals, and a plan of the Buildings belonging to your Mission, which has according to your desire, been communicated to Mr. Professr. Francke. It gives them a real Concern to hear of the bad State of Mr. Guericke's health, for whose recovery they heartily pray to God, at the same time they return thanks for his goodness to Mr. Schultzius in this respect, whose progress in his Studies and Labours for the Service of the Mission administers matter of present joy to them and fills them with good hopes of future Success. — From what they see at home, they can easily believe what Obstacles and impediments both internal and external, you may meet with in propagating our most holy Religion, in a Foreign and Pagan Country. But as it is the Cause of God, and the Command of his Son, to all his Disciples to carry it on to the utmost of their power, it is our duty not to be weary in well doing but to persevere in the use of the best and surest means we can think of to this End. — And such are those the Society has put into your hands, not doubting of your fidelity, diligence, & Zeal in exerting them, and trusting to the Help and Providence of God to bless them in his own wise and good time, as he have done at Tranquebar, with a Success far exceeding human expectations. — This Thought should encourage you to go on with chearfulness under the most discouraging Appearances, Both for this reason, as well hoping that both of them may be the means of promoting such an union of affections, and such an Intercourse of good Offices among the several Missionaries as must be a great Strengthening to the Protestant Cause against Pagans, and Papists.

The Society, Sirs, have hitherto been so full in their Instructions to you for your Conduct, and Labours in ye Service of their Mission, that they have nothing more to say to you on that head. They only give me Orders to suggest to you, that you must still take care to manage the Moneys you receive, either from England or Germany, with all possible frugality, and not to enter into any extraordinary expences either for carrying on the Mission, or for enlarging the Building of it, for any other accommodations, and ehordinaries, than what are absolutely necessary, for otherwise it was wrong for you, to do what you did last year, considering that the 50 l. allotted to that use first assigned to this Branch of their Designs, is no less exhausted now, than in the Church Book at Fort St. George; So that it is with the utmost difficulty they have made the necessary Remittances both this and the last year. Now the surest way to encrease these remittances will be the good Accounts you can send us over of ye Christian fruits, that are to be seen in the lives, and conversations of such Persons (be their Number never so small) as have been converted by you and Educated in your Schools. You are therefore to take Special Care (both in regard to the Expense, as well as Credit of your Mission) not to entertain any whom you suspect of offering themselves to you for Proselytes or Scholars, from such worldly Motives, as influenced those who followed our Blessed Saviour for his loaves, for fear of receiving not only Reputation to Baptism, but of having, (to the scandal and prejudice of the Gospel) your Congregation made up

[illegible] lively hood throw off their Mask of Religion [illegible] [illegible] just the same (as that Wretch, who had like to have [illegible] disorderly, unfaithfull and downright Profligate; the [illegible] perhaps, as moral heathen have already learned from their [illegible] — If your Converts then should prove but Sham, do what [illegible] can to make them sure: and that your Converts live of [illegible] as becometh the Gospel of Christ. — You cannot certainly be too cautious in the choice of Schoolmasters, considering what an [illegible] one, their principles and examples must have upon the Youth under their care. — Did you not therefore bear too hard with the old Malabarian Master, who would, even before he was dismissed, sometimes talk, not only as almost rigid Predestinarian, but as an Atheist? His Conduct ought at least to alarm you, so as to keep a very watchfull Eye over his Successor.

But I must not conclude this Letter Revd Sirs, without informing you, that the Society have (notwithstanding all discouragements and the low State of their Funds) came to a resolution of Sending by the next Ships two New Missionaries, to Fort St George, upon receiv-ing the kindest assurances of all possible assistance herein from the goodness of Professr Francke, who has promised to look out for proper persons agt that time: and sooner it could not be done considering the present troubles and Wars in Europe, and how late in the Year your last letters came to us. — You see herein an instance of the sincere and warm Zeal, which the Society have to support and carry on their Missions both at Fort St George and Cudalore: and to convince all World, that nothing will be ever wanting within their power, to promote Christian Knowledge both at home and abroad; and that they will likewise do whatever in them lies, consistently with all other their Designs, to maintain the Labourers they shall from time to time send into their Eastern Harvest, to prevent the Loss of them. — But as prudence ought at all times to govern [illegible] against it of you, to be as carefull [illegible] Expences, Even in those that regard the Maintenance of Children in your Schools; to whom they are pleas'd to hear you teach the Church of England Catechism, it being an English Mission.

The Society Salute you both in the most kind and respectfull manner, and wish to Mr Gneister the perfect recovery of his health, and to you both a long enjoyment of it, for which they constantly pray to God, as well as for his Grace to aid and bless you with Success in your Labours. Give me leave to join with them, who am

Your most humble Servant

W. Watts Secretary

P. S. The Society have a present of a small Silver Cup and Paten for the Communion, which if wanted, either at Madras, or Cuddalore, shall be sent over upon Notice by the next Ships.

Reverend Sir

As the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge were pleased (upon the Motion of Mr Thomas) to commit to my Care their Correspondence with all the Protestant Missionaries in the East Indies; I am by their order to acknowledge the favour of yours to them, dated the 19 of Janry 1742/3: and to assure you that it is with an extraordinary satisfaction they hear of your being chosen by the unanimous approbation of your Brethren at Tranquebar to take the Charge of the English Mission at Madras upon the absence or decease of Mr Schultz; as also, that you have by going Load them under such an Obligation as they shall never forget. Nothing, Sir, can be more pleasing to them than the Zeal you express towards carrying on so good a Work to the utmost of your Power; Since from the high opinion they have of your abilities they are full of hopes of seeing it again prosper, even more than it ever did, in Mr Schultz's time by the blessing of God upon your Labours.

Nothing will be wanting that they can do, or contribute towards your ease and aid herein consistently with all their other designs for Promoting Christian Knowledge, both at home and abroad. However I am to acquaint you that the particular Fund that was first assigned to this purpose is exhausted here, as well as in the Church Stock at Fort St George, so that it is with great difficulty they have made the necessary remittances both this and the last year. And therefore when you and your Brethren at Cudalore know this, they doubt not but you will they will manage them with all possible frugality, and not enter upon any New and expensive Schemes (which for carrying on [illegible] encouraging the Circumstances of that Mission the most Hopeful ones; till Providence shall bless us with greater ability, by encreasing the Number, or Value of Benefactions to it, which have of late years much declined from a variety of Causes, but probably more so much as from the unpromising State of that Mission, occasioned by such unhappy differences, & wrong managements, as have given the Society a most affecting Concern; Which we Cannot as they believe, which you and your Brethren at Tranquebar have had for it; the same which should determine you to exert yourself, in order to retrieve, if possible, all past miscarriages, and put it into a way of becoming in time, by the Grace of God, as flourishing a Mission as what you have left.

This, Rev.d Sir, is the trust and hope the Society have in and of you; and are therefore upon receiving the kindest assurances of the utmost assistance from the goodness of Prof.s Francke) come to a resolution of doing what you desire in regard to two fellow Labourers, whom the Professor hopes to provide and send over by the Ships next year; for considering the present troubles and Wars in Europe, and how late your Letters came to hand, it could not be done sooner. In the meantime they can only pray to God for your health, and his Grace to enable you to go along with success in that great duty, & laborious employment, which a Zeal for his Service and Glory in the Salvation of Souls has moved you to undertake.

As to the manner of doing this, they leave it to your self, under the General Directions they send herewith to you, to their Missionaries, believing you to be (from the good opinion your Colleagues at Tranquebar have of you) the best judge of proper means. So that I am ordered to suggest nothing more to you at present, than these two things I. (1) That as this be always taught in your Schools, and [illegible] that the [illegible] of Children in the principles of our most holy Religion be [illegible] the most likely human means to spread & propagate that [illegible] & to preserve its purity in y[e] Christian World, yet if y[e] Children at Madras must be maintained & educated & taught gratis, you take care from time to time to proportion that Number to [illegible] & in all other disbursements so as not to exceed y[e] annual sum we shall make to you from home. Remember also, that the surest way to endear those remittances will be the good Account you can send us over of the Christian fruits that are to be seen, not so much in y[e] Number as in the Spirit, Life, and Conversation of those who have been brought up in our Schools.

It is with this one Caution to you not to take in any Children, whose Parents you suspect to send them from any other motive, than that of getting their Bread with you, till they are of an Age to earn it otherwise. For this reason the Society desire you to be as particular, and full, as you can, in informing them by your next what Number of Christians you think have been educated (and converted by y[e] Schools) & whether they continue, if alive, to believe and do as becometh the Gospel: and in what manner they now get their Living, that we may judge, whether they are not of that sort, who seek our Saviour, because they eat of his Loaves & are filled. Now such an Information it may not be difficult for you to procure, if as W[m] Schultz observes in his Journals, y[e] New Christians do chiefly reside within y[e] bounds of y[e] English Company's Territory.

As to the disbursements of the Mission, the Society are of opinion, that they may and ought to be cast in most of those Articles, which concern the purchasing of Paper, Leaves, and the Wages for Writers and Copyists, particularly [illegible] Mr Schultz [illegible] to send them [illegible] [illegible] and this to the [illegible] of his more proper & important business as a Missionary; which is not to sit at home & follow his own Studies and inclinations in a way of writing but to go abroad doing good by publick preaching & Exhortations.

You will see by the enclosed Account what Presents & Money are this year sent over from England and Germany to the several Missions in India. The Society have paid Mr Zahn the Bill of 306 Pag. 9 Fan. which Mr Schultz left in your hands, so that after deducting your Salary out of that Money you are to bring the remainder of it together with what more remitted to you by the Society and Mr Zeigenhagen to that Acct. of the Missions which you are to send over every year to the Society: I send at the same time to let them know what are your settlements of the Mission as well as a true State of it by a Copy of your Journal.

I have nothing more to add, but that ye Society Salute you in ye most kind and respectful manner, and wish you the safe, and long enjoyment of your health for which they constantly pray to God, as well as for his Grace to aid & Bless you with success in your Labours. Give me leave to join with them in these Respects, wishes and prayers, and to assure you that I am at all times and in all things wherein I can serve you shall employ me to ye utmost of my Power.

Reverend Sir

At the Society for Promoting Christian Knowl.e were pleased (upon y.e death of M.r Newman) to commit to my their Correspondence with all their Protestant Missionaries in y.e E.
Indies; I am, by their Order, to acknowledge the favour of your Letters to them: and to assure you, that they think themselves under an Obligation to you they shall never forget, for the readiness and Zeal, you have shewn to further their designs, in sending us upon the utmost exigency, so well qualified a Missionary to Madr.s as M.r Fabricius to supply the place of M.r Schultz. They can but hope from the great Character you give of him as well as the Concern himself he expresses, to discharge his duty there, that he will by Gods blessing on his Labours, not only retrieve all past miscarriages but put that Mission into a way of becoming in time as flourishing as what he has left at Tranquebar. And to encourage him herein, the Society have notwithstanding the declining State of their Benefactions resolved to send him by our Ships next year two fellow Labourers from Europe, upon receiving very good Assurances of y.r utmost Assistance from y.r goodness of Prof.r Franck; who has likewise promised to provide if possible two fit persons ag.st that time: and sooner it could not be done considering the present troubles and Wars in Europe, and how long all Letters come to their hands last year from India.

Having, Sir, mentioned the flourishing Mission at Tranquebar, y.e Society command me not to forget telling you [illegible] you are pleased to send them every year, and that they are filled in abundant thanksgivings unto God for your success, and in fervent prayers to him for his further aid & Blessing on & upon your Zeal and endeavours in propagating y[e] Xtian Religion, & upon those of their own Missionaries, at Madras & Cudalore.

It is also a real matter of satisfaction, and joy, to them, to see so happy a prospect of a good Correspondence and perfect harmony between all the Protestant Missionaries in India, as this must be the greatest Strengthening to y[e] Common Cause of our most holy Religion agt Pagans and Papists. — As an earnest likewise of their Zeal and Gratitude they have sent over to you (as you will find in their Invoices) not only their usual Presents both this and the last years, but a more plentiful Supply of printing paper and of all other Materials for your Press than you desired. — They desire and pray no less than you do (but must wait y[e] good providence of God) to have it in their power to settle Missions both at Bombay, & Calcutta, in Bengall; but are at present scarce able to support, and carry on what they have already begun in their own Settlements, considering how much their Benefactions towards them have of late decreased. However they give not over y[e] hope of seeing them rise again when the Explosive Wars in Europe shall come (as they trust in God they will) to an happy Issue, in a general Peace: and when their Missionaries can furnish them with as good Accounts of Success from Madras & Cudalore, as they receive from Tranquebar. — For the like reasons also they wish to God, that y[e] Military disturbances in your Neighbourhood were at an end, notwithstanding they may by y[e] wise Ordering of Providence, have in some measure spread away to y[e] spread of knowledge of y[e] Gospel into other parts of y[e] World, by

[illegible] Danish Skiff for Tranq[illegible]

I have nothing more to add, but that the Society desire you in the most kind and respectful manner: and constantly pray the Almighty to keep you under the immediate protection of his good providence as well as for the grace of the holy Spirit daily to Bless you, in all your doings and Labours for the propagating the Gospel of his Son unto the uttermost parts of the Earth. Give me leave to join with them in their Respects and prayers and that I am, at all times, and in all things wherein you shall employ me, to the utmost of my power.

To The Rev. Mess.rs Gueister & Fabricius at Madras

Reverend Sirs

I am in the Name, & by Order of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge to ackn. favour of your several Letters and Journals, &c. they safe by the last East India Ships: and to assure you good Accounts you send of their Mission at Madras afford no less matter of rejoycing to themselves, than of giving unto God. They thank themselves particularly by that ready obedience to their Commands, and the zeal their Service & Mr Gueister has shewn by removing the first Notice, and with all Expedition from his Settlement at Cudalore to Madras, notwithstanding his very ill state of health. — It is their hearty prayer to God to recover & strengthen him, that he may have like ability as inclin -tion to promote his glory, and the Xtian Religion in part of the World, whither Providence has called him. — However as the frequent & severe returns of his Indispo remind them of his danger, so they dispose them to contribute what they can towards his Recovery: and therefore tho Illness seems not to have occasioned any abatement his own zeal, yet as they are sensible it must prove great & continual an hindrance to him in y discharge of his ministry, that it will scarce be possible for him to thro' with what must be done in so laborious a Cure as of Madras; they leave for this reason determined to give him all the ease they can in his duty. — Accordingly to tell them, that the Society think it most advisable, may necessary for him to return to Cudalore, leaving Mr Swartz at Madras to the Care of Mr Fabricius: and the more so, because he finds his health to have been worse ever since his coming to Madras, and that the Air there is not so good as at Cudalore; and that he ought (according to ye Opinion of his Physician) to persevere in this Chronick Case (it may be years) in a constant Riding on Horseback, & in a general Alteration of mind from Study and Business, as much as in a course of Medicine. This is likewise the judgment of Mr Prof. Francke and of all Mr Gründlers other Friends in Germany; who have therefore kindly concerted with ye Society, and with the approbation of the College at Copenhagen, that Mr Zeglin should remove from Tranquebar and become Assistant Missionary to his dear Friend Mr Fabricius at Madras upon the Arrival of Messrs Breithaupt and Klein, who are appointed to supply their Places at Tranquebar, and whom we trust to the Providence of God in this time of danger, that it will carry them safe to you in the Ship that brings this Letter; whose Characters and recommendations are such, as give us reason to hope, that they will not only prove Fellow Labourers, but in no wise come behind the chiefest of those who have gon before them in the Christian Harvest in India.

As to Mr Fabricius, I cannot express the satisfaction, wch the Society have in his prudence, his zeal, his diligence and his Labours in preaching, Catechising & School Instruction, as well as in his Oeconomy of their Mission — They have indeed so good an opinion of, and confidence in him, as to see little or no need for any directions but what he will find in their general Instructions to their Missionaries, (a Copy of which I have one thing more in charge to Mr Fabricius viz. is to tell him that tho the Society have it no less at heart than he himself to build a Church that may be both in its dimensions and architecture be suitable to flourishing state and circumstances of their Mission Madras, yet as neither their Fund, nor casual Benefactions will at present enable them to raise any such Building, nor even to be laying in Stores of Materials for it; so they think it to no purpose to be providing sending over Plans; however they can't but recommend to him and his Colleague to spare what they can from the real service of the Mission out of their Annual Contri-both from hence and Germany. God reward Mr. D. Franc and his Friends for their abundant Liberality herein

...ought just out what is requisite to Instruct in the Church Work at Fort St George, that there may be always somewhat in Readiness to Supply unforeseen contingences and necessary Demands, as well as to carry on to perfection with Gods Blessing, and in his own time so excellent a design: and may his providence soon raise up Benefactors of so religious & charitable a Spirit, as to minister out of the Ability he gives them whatever is wanting to supply this Lack in his Service.

I have nothing more to add but that the Society Salute you in the most tender manner and make it their constant care to pray to God that you may enjoy your health, and that of Work of God may prosper in your hands; wherein give me leave to join with them, and to Assure you, of my Sincere and hearty endeavours to promote and carry on that good work in which you are so heartily engaged in.

To the Rev.d Mess.rs Ziegenbalg Boltze Obrecht, Mandelslohe Kolhoff & Zeglin Madrass

I am as Secretary to the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, not only to acknowledge the re favour of your last Letters to them, but to assure you the y.r Account you give of the Success attending your Zeal and Labors in the furtherance of the Gospel of Christ at Tranquebar, are not only most acceptable & pleasing to them, but abundant likewise by many thanksgivings unto God to whose Providence the Glory of it ought to be ascribed and to whose holy Spirit is owing the increase you see of the Christian Harvest among you, since all human Instruments are nothing in comparison to the Almighty w.ch gives them both Strength and Efficiency by working them both to will and to do, even in pleasing & working his own good pleasure. To him therefore ought all Glory to come, not only in prayer, but in adoration & honour Thanksgiving. However under him the Society look upon the Mission at Tranquebar as the parent of those adopted Children of great hopes, w.ch they have now under their Care at Madras & Cuddalore, tho' they are at the same time full as sensible of their Obligations to the College at Copenhagen for furthering with the most chearful readiness as well as to the utmost of their power any even for good beyond that love and zeal w.ch their Missionaries at Tranquebar of their own Accord have been disposed to shew towards assisting their Brethren. — For they have ever granted leave to Mr Zeglin to go, & be a Fellow Labourer with his dear Friend Mr Fabricius in y.e Work of his Mission at Madras, on hearing y.e ill state of Mr Guester's health makes it both desirable & necessary for him to return to Europe [illegible] as Gabriel, rather than may have better rest and more leisure to recruit & gain new strength by a general Relaxation from Study & Business, as well as continual Reading and Living in a more wholesome Air

We trust in God that of these two Missionaries will in time be repair'd to you, and herein we have the Judgment of the College of Copenhagen, as well as of our Prof. Franck, by the Arrivals of Messrs Brithaupt and Klein who are appointed to supply their Places, if this Providence (as we earnestly pray it may) shall bring them in safety to you at a most dangerous time, in the same Ship, by wch you will receive this Letter. Their Character & Recommendations to us are such, that we have all the reason in the World to believe and hope, that they will not only prove fellow Labourers to you, but by Divine Grace come no short behind the chiefest of those who have gon before them in the Christian Manifestation in India.

I have little more to add but the fervent prayers of the Society to God for his Blessing on your health and labours: and to acknowledge with gratitude and respect the assistances of different kinds, wch you have been pleased to afford to their Missions at Madras & Cudalore, in their several wants & distresses.
It is you may be apprehended an Obligation, to wch the Society will on all occasions be disposed to make every return within their power in Testimony whereof they have sent whatever books or things they can think of for the Service as well of your printing Press as Mission & for propagating the Gospel in that part of the World whither Divine Providence has called you.

I am Rev.d Sirs
Your most humble Servt.

To the Rev.d Mr Thummius Wolff

Reverend Sir

I am by Command of the Society to acknowledge the favour of the Letter and Journals they rec.d from you by the last Ships from India and to assure you at the same time, that they have an entire Satisfaction in the fervidness, diligence and Zeal, wherewith you endeavour to propagate Christian Faith and Knowledge within the reach of their Mission at Tranquebar, and that they think themselves particularly obliged by the readiness wherewith you undertook the whole Duty of it upon Summons of your Colleague Mr Gruisler to Madras. However to ease this burden to you, and in regard to his ill State of health, wch grows worse thro' the badness of the Air at that place, they have thought it both advisable and necessary as well Mr Professr Francke and his friends in Germany seem to return to you at Tranquebar. And the more so as the College of Copenhagen (who seem to have a prop.r of the English Mission at Madras no less at heart than that of their own at Tranquebar) have been pleased to consent to Mr Ziegler's going to continue as a fellow Labourer and Assistant Missionary with his Dear Friend Mr Fabricius. To supply their places at Tranquebar We Trust, that y.e Providence of God will bring safe to you Messrs Burkhardt & Klein, whose Characters & recommendations to us are such, as that we have all the reason in y.e World to believe & hope, that they will in time, come nothing behind the chiefest of those who have gon before them in y.e Main Harvest in India.

The Circumstances of the Society do still make it requisite for them to caution you to use all possible frugality & oeconomy in y.e expences of your Mission Not that they have any thing here in the Name [illegible] you, as their Guardian & Protector to take that S.t George is quite as humble as they wish to be again frustrated but of any complaint from their Annual Remittances, that there may be always somewhat in Bank to answer any Generous contingencies & necessary Demands — As to the other directions in your Duty, they see little occasion for any - but what you will find in their general Instructions — They have therefore only Order'd me to recommend it to you as well as to your Brethren at Madras, to cultivate both the your Portuguese & English to as much a Manner as may be, the same plan of Doctrine and Worship as in the Church of England to observe the same form of Baptism, as is in their Book of Common Prayer; and to continue of using and explaining of the Catechism therein in their Schools & Congregations; may to translate it into the Malabar & Tamul Languages, and to send Copies of such translation over to the Society. — And further as to Conferences the you shall with the Quakers Heathen and they Discourses you make to them in your excursions into the Country, have really convinced both edifying & and entertaining in them: The Society desires, that you will always send your Letters and Journals be as particular as you can in your Account of the Steps & methods you take in making Converts.

I have nothing more to add, but that the Society Salute you in the most tender manner and make it their constant prayers to God, that you may enjoy your health, and that the Glorious Gospel may prosper in the [illegible] you are engaged in may prosper, give me leave to join with them, and to assure you, that I am

To the Rev.d Mr. [illegible] Missionary to Tranquebar

Rev.d Sir

I have it in charge from y.e Society for promoting Christian Knowledge to thank you for y.r Letters, Journals & Accompts, w.ch all came safe to hand by our East India Ships: & to let you know that they think of you with Esteem & gratitude for y.e pains you take & for y.e good service you do, as their Missionary in that part of y.e World. They trust in God, that He will in his own wise time bless your Ministry w.th a success equal to their wishes, altho it have not been such y.e last year, as they expected. Nor do they doubt but that you will yourself (be y.e difficulties what they will) persevere in your Labour, care & diligence, till you have done all that lieth in you to bring not only your own Congregation & Papists, but likewise y.e Heathen around you to such a faith, knowledge & Practice, as becomes y.e Gospel of Christ. You will do y.e work of an Evangelist to which you are called, & give y.e fullest proof you can both of your Ministry & Zeal in it, by instructing Children, by Catechising y.e Youth & y.e unlearned, by constant preaching: and by being instant in & out of season in Doctrine & Exhortation at all your Visits & Conferences. You will they doubt not, persevere herein, notwithstanding your Discourses proved so ineffectual last year, as not to have gain'd one Adult Proselyte from among the Heathen, whose frequent visits to you seem to have been more owing to their Curiosity of Library & y Buildings of your Asylum House to Physical & Metaphysical Speculations, than to any or inclination for knowing & Learning of saving Truths Gospel. But is not this a Hint, which you should in wise indulge, but rather discourage so far as you can giving Offence? seeing it appears not to have answer one good end, and must be attended wth Expence.

I must not forget to take Notice, that ye Society think a happy Circumstance for you to have (wch ye Absence Mr Gericke) so faithful & able an Assistant, as your Malabarian Catechist Ambrose, but yet as his Judgm as well as knowledge of the Scriptures, do not, (as is from ye Specimen you give of his performances) come ye Qualification of a Missionary, who has been bred in the Christian Religion & its Ministry; you will do not to lessen yor own Duty without an Absolute Neces either in preaching to your Congregation, or visiting Heathen, wch are points of greater Consequence, than Critical Improvements in Language, or ye Translat of Books. — As your Duty indeed therein, must be easyer to you, if your own friend & Colleague Mr Gericke be returnd to you from Madras, according to ye Direct that were sent to him twelve Months ago.

From your joint Labours, Revd Sir, ye Soc entertain great hopes of seeing their Mission at Cud no less flourishing than that at Madras. However am ordered to tell you, that ye pleasure of their Lord must a little abate by ye bad state of our Funds for [illegible] Clamours [illegible] Measures, [illegible] any [illegible] Clamours rise to say in some degree extravagant Management of the large remittances that have been sent from Europe, w.ch if that remitted, must soon end in its Bankruptcy. The Stock at Fort St George has been quite exhausted, & the little Savings that have been made for its recruits against a time of necessity & Distress) have been lent out against explicit Directions upon private Securities, by which an extraordinary loss happened last year at Madras.

We also fear, that you have gon into y.e same Measures, and run y.e same hazard by the Interest you bring to Account, as of Money upon loan, even at y.e very time you have borrowed a large Sum from Tranquebar. Nor is this all, for notwithstanding y.e Society have almost in every Letter recommended it to you to be careful in every thing that can in prudence lessen Expences of every kind; yet you have hitherto been so improvident a Steward for 'em, or so little regarded them that your Disbursements y.e last year are greater than they have been ever since y.e buildings were finished. Finished did I say? Far from it, — for tho' they had before cost above 500 l.b Sterl.g (wherein you went much beyond your first Estimate) and were perfected as we had reason to believe for y.e reception of Two Missionarys, & of a Family equal to what you could expect if y.e Mission should flourish, and all this done in a substantial manner, and with all imaginable Conveniences; yet it seems now that some of the s.d Buildings have been pull'd down & others enlarged, any or New Suggestions from Europe. And here I must tell you, that frothy Style you seem to make y[r] Hon[ble] and other Circumstances in your Journal, some of your bers suspect you have had more regard to grandeur, th to usefulness herein. You allege indeed somewhat of a necessity of a new Cookroom, & for having more Apartments for y[e] Children, who could not otherwise be regularly dieted & commodiously Lodged. But if y[t] be so, how came your Original Plan to be so faulty deficient? Besides, before you entered upon a Scheme of maintaining so large a Family of Children & Servants, w did you not consult and wait for y[r] opinion of y[e] Society Have they not frequently intimated to you their dislik of it, not only as an Expence their Funds cannot at pre bear, but likewise as of a Thing They suspected to be evi in itself, & a temptation to Parents (if necessitous) to their Children to you, not for y[r] sake of Spiritual, but bo food. In like manner, as many followed our Blessed Saviour himself, not for his Doctrine, but his Loaves We find this true in fact at Madras, where y[e] Mission Allowances to Parents for the Time their Children loose whilst teaching, from their Labours. It therefore seems strange, that you should at this very Time be doing w They are unbeing: & be taking into y[e] House all y[e] Chil you can get, or their Parents cable Maintain; by wch m y[r] Disbursements at Cudalore have actually encre at Madras, that one Mistress be longer than the other, as even maintains two Mistresses. Nor is this to be wonderd at, upon a particular Inspection into the Articles of your Disbursements, seeing you keep in your Six house Servants (one indeed thrown upon ye Society since your Marriage) as also 5 Palanquin Boys &. Cook & Francisco's Wife to serve in the Kitchen, over & above a Cook, a Masterman & Steward, as at Madras, where they have but two House Servants charged to ye Society; notwithstanding y^r^ Family be larger. From this View of Things, it has been intimated to the Society, that there seems reason to imagine, that a good deal of this increase of Expences, in ye enlargement of buildings, in ye Maintenance of Children, and in ye appointment of so many Masters & Servants over them, has in some Measure proceeded from the high regard you have to Matrimony itself, wch inclines you to make ye best provision you can for each of your Family, as should enter into that State. For else (to say nothing of your Nuptial Presents) what need could there be of encreasing ye Number of Teachers in your Schools when your Scholars wth all ye Addition you have made amount to no more than 34. Would not one Teacher suffice in each School as heretofore: & as it does for a much greater Number of Children in our English Charity Schools? and y^t^ more so, seeing the 2 Eldest Boys in ye Portuguese School, are so far Advanced in Learning as to assist ye Master in instructing the Younger Children. May it not be said that you would not have added Mrs. Margaretha Evanse to ye Number, had she not been ye Sister of Pillow

You will, Revd Sir, excuse the freedom with which leave it in Express Command to write to you, upon so unpleasant a Subject; to wch give me leave to add, that ye Benefactions to ye Society for this branch of their designs fall very very short of ye ordinary & necessary Expences of the Mission, so that they have been obliged to intrude upon other Funds, & for no less sums than 35 l. 18. 10 in the last year & of 262. 7. 2 in the present, over & above the frugality, wch are larger than they can hope to make another considering how much this Kingdom is at Present exhausted of its wealth by a Domestic as well as Foreign War. That God may preserve you & your Colleague Mr Guerster (if he be you) in good health, and abundantly supply all y^r wants of the Missions, and give his blessing of Grace & Success all ye Labors in ye work of ye Ministry, is ye Constant

P.S. You will I hope receive safely by your last Ships, ye Money presents & things sent you [illegible] by ye Honourable

To the Revd Messrs Frederick & Fabricius at Madrass.

Revd & Sirs,

I have it in charge from the Society for promoting Christian Knowledge, to Acquaint you, that yor Letters, Journals & Accompts came safe to me, by the last East India Ships; as also to Assure you, that ye good Success of yor Spiritual Labours is matter of great Satisfaction to them, as well as of hearty thanksgivings unto God; & that They think of you wth Affection, Esteem & gratitude, as his instruments & Ministers in ye blessed work of the Gospel. However tho They thus think of the Spiritual State of yor Mission, yet of Temporal Affairs of it give them an extraordinary Concern & uneasiness: & ye more so, as they not how to retrieve at present, what it hath suffer'd from ye imprudent Oeconomy of their Missionaries, and as they fear, that this must Affect & prejudice, if not ruin the Mission itself in ye great design & end of it.

It was, Gentlemen, from an Apprehension of such Evils, that ye Society, at ye first Settlement thereof & for years together, did all that was in their power (going indeed often times beyond it) to provide a settled Fund in ye Church Stock of Fort St George, that might be always ready & sufficient to Answer every Emergency & distress; & more particularly, that which befell you in ye

But what care was taken during the Stay of [illegible] as well as Admonition was given to Mr. Schultz, and by him all their Missionaries, who were then with him, or should him, you must know from their Letters, which are no doubt entered in a Book, and frequently read by you for your instruc & direction, whenever like Circumstances shall occurr. And y notwithstanding all the Society could say or do, that Fund was totally exhausted by an imprudent, if not extravagant Manag

Nor is this worst, for tho' positive & express Orders sent from time to time, as you may see in y Course of y Letters, that y Surplus of whatever could be saved every ye from y current & necessary Expences out of our extraordinary remittances should be put out to Interest, not on private Se rities, but in y Church Stock; yet y Missionaries instead o paying the regard they ought to y Society, have (even y most particular & strong remonstrances) run y hazard of a loan of 320 Pagodas to a Black Merchant, of no ev Substance nor of a more creditable Character in life, than of chief Dubash to a temporary Governor of Fort St. Geo at whose Mercy such Persons always lay & are almost sure to be dismiss'd upon a Change, if not ruin'd by it, for so th Quaister observes it sometimes happeneth, when They a called to Account.

You are, I believe Gentlemen, now convinced of y Wisdom & necessity of these Orders by too fatal an Exp for y Society have it not in their power to make good what have lost. The Benefactions appropriated to y. Use of their Designs fall every year exceeding short of y Expen

upon their Funds for so large a Sum as 334.18.10 in y[e] last year, wch y[e] present for 262.7.2 over & above Ye Profits y[t] Funds & most liberal Benevolence. Now what Hindrance, must this end in but a Total Banckruptcy of y[e] Society or y[e] Mission? Unless Providence shall interpose to save us, as by Miracle. Would to God, it may do so, for his Name & glories sake, for y[e] sake of our Blessd Redeemer, & his Religion, wch y[e] Society have most at heart in all their Schemes, resolutions & Transactions. For considering y[e] unhappy condition of this Kingdom at present, as engaged in y[e] vast expences both of a Domestic & Foreign War, there is little human probability of an Increase to our Charitable Contributions. It may rather be fear'd, that our former Benefactors will grow cool, if not be quite disobliged, when They come to know, that so much of what They have given, has been thrown away: and that great part, of what They may now give, must go towards discharging Debts contracted in good measure by bad Oeconomy, (and ag[t] express Orders from y[e] Society.
But to say no more of what is past, It must Cont[d] be more than ever a your Duty & concern to manage hereafter w[th] all possible prudence & frugality: & to go into no one Article of Expense, but what is absolutely necessary. I am therefore sorry to observe to you, (what has been observed by our Treas[r] from y[e] Acct of your Disbursements last year) that you were even then somewhat Tardy in this respect; or else y[e] you would never have enter'd upon Buildings & Repairs, that might have been let alone, nor have made y[e] purchase of a new Pelanquin, with some other Articles of unnecessary Expense.

[illegible] you were [illegible]

Your Letters of y 20 Decem.r 1745 to my self and The Hon.ble Society for Promoting Xtian Knowledge, are come safe to hand, and as I am greatly oblig'd to you for your many Prayers and good Wishes for me & that I may be enabled to Discharge the great Trust repos'd in me as I ought, so I beg leave to Assure you, that no Care or Industry of mine shall be wanting to Promote & Encourage y[r] Mission, as I wrote you in my former Letters which I hope you have receiv'd.

I am by Order of y[e] Society to Acknowledge y[e] favour of y[r] Letter, & to assure you, that nothing give Thanks for so much [illegible] Zeal & Labours in promoting y[e] knowledge Tiglin are safe arrived with you.

I am to return you the Society's Thanks for your k Assistance in supplying Mr. Kiernander with 142 Pagodas Portuguese Books for the use of the two Missions. They hope Mr Kiernander did repay you upon y[e] Arrival of y[e] Vessel

I have little more to add, but to acquaint you that the Society in Testimony of their grateful Sence of your many Favours to their Mission, have sent by every thing you desired, or they could think of for the Service of your Printing Press, & for the Propa you to them for the Society's Instructions & Orders, in regard to the future management of y.r Mission.

I hope your old friend & Colleague Mr. Teglin has joind you long before this time, & I trust in God that thro' y.r prudent management & diligent Labours y.r work of the Mission will prosper in your hands.

The Salaries & usual Presents, together with the Things desird for the Mission, you will receive by the Stafford Capt. Baker.

As Mr. Professor Franke has made no remittance to y.r Society this year, his Benefaction if any, you will receive by y.r way of Tranquebar. By the latter Ships you may expect to hear from the Society in case any thing shall be thought necessary to be added to what they wrote by the Princess Mary & Britannia. The Society awaiting with Patience an Answer to those Letters As I am a hearty well wisher to the good work you are employ in, you may be assurd I shall exert my utmost Endeavours to promote it. That you & y.r fellow Labourer may long go on & prosper in Promoting y.e Kingdom of Xt, is y.r sincere desire

Rev.d Sirs

I am to acknowledge y.e Receipt of your Letters to y.e Society for Promoting Christian Knowle & myself of Decem.r last, and am very much obliged t your, for your good opinion of, & Prayers for m I shall endeavour with the Divine Assistance to the utmost of my power to answer, by embracing every opportunity to Promote & encourage your Mission & by Complying with your Requests.

I am by Order of the Society to acknowledge y.e favours to them, & to assure you, that They mourn toge with you for the Death of that worthy & Goodman Pasto Ahron, trusting that Divine Providence will supply h place by a faithfull Labourer in the Lords Vineyard But tho' his Death gave them just cause for Sorrow, yet y.e fruit of your Mission, & y.e great success attending y.e Zeal & Labours at Tranquebar & the Adjacent Villages gave them at the same time y.e greatest pleasure & satisfaction The great increase of your Congregation especially of Adult Persons, from among the Roman Catholicks as well as the Heathen is matter of great Joy to y.e Society & opens y.e pleasing Prospect that y.e kingdom of Satan is declining. And the Number of Children you have this year Baptised from among the Heathen gives hopes, that your Labours will in the end be Crown'd with y.e desir'd success.

As the Society's Letters by the Princess Mary [illegible] shall refer you to them with observing that from the same great opinion of Society their has & still have of you & your Mission. They have sent every thing you desird, or they could think would be of Service for the use of y[e] Printing Press, by Station Capt[n] Baker.

That God may bless and Prosper you with health & happiness, & abundantly supply you w[th] the

Yours of the 10th 12th 26th Jan.y & 10 May, wth the Papers relating to Isaac came safe to hand; But as you sent no Account of the State of the Mission under your Care, am apprehensive some of your Letters have miscarried.

I am to Acquaint you, that the Society have sent by the Pelham Capt. Tolson a Chest markd E. M. No 1 containing 1125 Ounces of Silver. 562 1/2 of which, is for the Salarys due to yourself, & Mr Fabricius & his Colleague; The other 562 1/2 you are to dispose of as follows, viz. 1/3 for the Mission at Madras, 1/3 for that at Cudulore & 1/3 for Tranquebar. Mr Guericke being indebted to ye Society 200 Pagodas, gives them great uneasiness, to think that their Missionaries should make use of the Silver belonging to the Mission for their private use. But as I am at present straiten'd for time, cannot enlarge on that shameful manner in which he left the Mission, and has thereby given great offence to all that well wishers to it.

As the Preliminarys for a General Peace are now Settled, so the Society's Resolutions in regard to their Mission, will in a great measure depend upon those of the Last India Company.

I cannot but heartily condole with you in your late unhappy Calamity's, But hope the same good Providence which has hitherto preserved you, will still take Care of you and your Flock, that ye Kingdom of Christ may be advanced and the

But as Affairs have taken another turn in Europe, they hope of some good providence w.ch has hitherto preserved y.e Mission will still uphold & support it, & that y.r Divine Blessing will always prosper the good Work in w.ch you are engaged. I should be to blame, if I did not assure you, that y.e Society (next under God) fix their hopes upon you, being fully satisfy'd of your true & hearty concern to promote the Glory of God in the Salvation of Souls.

I am in their Names to Salute you & your Colleague in y most affectionate manner, & to assure you, they make it their constant Prayer to Almighty GOD that you may both enjoy all Health & happiness & that y Work of the Mission may flourish in your hands; wherein give me leave to join them & to assure you that I am with the greatest Respect

Rev. Sirs

I am in y Name of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge to Acknowledge the Receipt of your Obliging Letter of 14 March last, to w. a particular Answer will be sent by the latter Ships: This serving only to cover an Invoice of several Stores, w. are Shipd on Board y Tavistock Capt Cusk, for the use of y Protestant Mission, & w. were left behind last year by the Harwich The Society are very sensible of the difficulties you have labour'd under for want of y Stores &c., but hope y like Accident will never happen again.

I am

I am to assure you in my Name & ye Society that my Success of your Mission is matter of great Joy to them, & that they are extremely well pleas'd wth your several Accounts. I have only time at present to Salute you all in their Name in ye most kind & respectful manner & to assure you they make it their constant Prayer to Almighty GOD to bless and prosper ye good Work you are engaged in. & and give me leave to join wth them & to assure you that I shall at all times as far as in me lies, employ myself in promoting & Encouraging those truely Christian & Excellent Designs you are with so much Zeal & Piety carrying on.

Revd Sir

Your several Letters & Journals &c^a bearing date in ye Months of March & April last, are come safe to hand, but as ye matters contain'd in them will require some time & attention before a full Answer can be given to them, Affairs as yet not being fully settled, The Society's Answer, therefore, cannot be ready till ye Latter Ships Sail'd

I have enclosed you the Invoice of the Stores Shipt on Board the Tavistock Capt Cash wch were left behind by the Hardwick last Year, as also 2000 Ounces of Silver by the Brittannia Capt Sommer. 892 £ of wch are sent by the Society to pay the Salarys to yourself, Mr Fabricius, Mr Tegin & Mr Breithaupt, & to defray the other Expences of the Mission. And the other 1108 £ are to be dispos'd off as Mr Tiegenhagen shall appoint

The Society are very sensible of the many hardships you have labour'd under by reason of the Money & Stores not coming to you in due time but as the War is now over, they trust that ye good Providence of God will again appear in behalf of ye Mission, raise it to a more flourishing Condition then it has ever yet attain'd to. I have no more to add at present but that ye Society Salutes you in ye most affectionate manner, & make it their constant Prayer to Almighty God, that you may Enjoy Health & happiness & that ye glorious Work in wch you are engaged may prosper in your hands, give me leave to join wth them, & to assure you that I am

Tho' the Society have receivd no Letters from you the last Year, they have nevertheless sent the usual Presents, as you will see by the encld Invoice: and I am ord their Name, to assure you, that the Success of your Ministry is a thing they have greatly at heart & that from what you have already done they doubt not in the least, but in Gods due time, the knowledge of Christianity will be spread over ye Coast of Coromandel

The Society you may be assurd will be ready at all times to promote the Interest of your Missions, as far as it is in their Power; & I am in their Name to beg the favour of you, to let Mr Cutteman go to Cuddalore, to be Colleague to Mr Kemander, & I doubt not but he will prove a faithful Servant to our Lord & Master Jesus Christ

Copies Rev. M. Thomas's Letters to M.r Fabricius at Madras 23 Feby 1771

Rev.d Sir

I am now writing by particular Desire to assure you, that it was not from any disapprobation of your Personal Conduct or any want of Zeal towards the East India Missions, that the Society have not for some time past kept up the same kind Correspondence with you as heretofore, but from their being at a loss what Instructions Advices, or Orders to send you, under those uncertainties, confusions, & distresses in the sore Judgment of War had brought upon you. Of their Zeal indeed they gave you many & convincing Proofs by the most regular Remittances they could make from year to year in Money & Effects, God be prais'd they came safe to you to answer your Exigencies, & relieve your needfull Wants, for the times & circumstances of things would not then permitt them to extend either their Assistance or their Views further. They could then do nothing more than they did for their Missions, by the recommending of yourself & your Fellow Labourers thereto by fervent Prayer to y.e Care & Protection of God's good & over-ruling Providence: & to the Grace of his Holy Spirit to guide, comfort, & strengthen you all under that variety of difficulties, troubles, & trials you had to encounter. To therefore be the Glory of those Deliverances he from time to time wrought for you; as well as of the Prospect he has since opened to you, not only of a peaceable & comfortable Settlement at Cuddalore, [for M.r Fabricius resolved to at Madras] but to likewise of seeing your Mission there [illegible] Dues to it

However after so much belong to God & Glory due unto him for these his Mercies & favours, I have the pleasure to tell you that the Society retain the most just & grateful sense of the prudence, diligence, & zeal, with you & your Brethren have shewn in discharging the duties of your Ministry in that part of the World, to which his Providence has carried you; as well as for that Christian Resolution, Patience & Perseverance wherewith you have endur'd a great Fight of Afflictions.— They do very highly esteem you & them for your Works sake.— For altho neither Planters, nor Waterers in Gods Husbandry, ought to assume to themselves any Merit or Glory from what they do therein by the sufficiency of this Grace: or from an Increase, &c. it is wholly owing to his Blessing; yet as he is pleas'd to regard even such, as Instruments of his Providence, nay, as Moral Agents or Fellow Labourers with him, in that which is his Work, so shall each one of them (such is divine Goodness) receive from him his own reward, in heaven, if not in Earth, according to his own Labour.

The Society indeed are full of hopes from the good things God hath already done for you, that he will go on to prosper more & more, such his work in your hands: & that after having a little chastised you for your profit, & prov'd you, & found you worthy to be his Ministers thro' trouble as well as ease, thro' want as well as abundance, thro' evil as well as good Report. He will bless both you and your Mission in the latter end more than even he did in the beginning or Progress.

Such Hopes, I say, have for you Godward; however you may herein depend upon every kind of Assistance and the Success of their Mission, so far distant as to have hard Actions to encourage & allow for their enlargement. They have indeed met with encouragement by this Government. They have received of the good disposition & favours, as the Governors & Councils of our East India Company's Settlements have already shewn you, both upon Political & Religious Considerations, as represented & enforced by Adm.l Boscawen.

Such dispositions, as determined them not only to testify their willingness, but even to go beyond the Powers they have at present from their Directors & Principals in contributing their utmost Assistance, as well as recommendation towards making you a just recompence for your Sufferings and Losses, through the Calamities of War, by putting you into Possession of a Church, that belongs to those who have shewn themselves no less Enemies to English Settlements than Protestant Missions in both Indies. [what follows under these marks "] is to be inserted in Mr Fabricius's Letter only "may, by adding to it other Buildings, out of which you may be "able at no great expence to make a better Mission House "than they demolished."

From Intimations of this kind in some of your Letters, the Society expected others from you by the last Ships Such particulars, as might have been a good foundation, not only of a Plan for perfecting what is wanting in both their Missions, but likewise of a Memorial wherein they propose to set forth to the Directors of the East India Company what helps & favours you stand in need of; nothing done by what is there of their own Inclinations, but that [illegible] Days not receiving them sooner (by what Accident we know not) any such Letter is a great disappointment to the Society & Almost (as they cannot tell what to ask the occasion of Delay in the execution of their Plan & Designs. — However they have by this Ship that brings you this (the Scarborough Capt Dawvergne) sent what remittances they thought advisable in the present Situation of Affairs; to the which you have a large addition made by M.r Prof. Franck who (tho always beneficent) has now abounded unto ye riches of his liberality. The Lord reward him & all who join with him in doing good, according to their Works.

Nay, his Care, affection and Zeal for the English Mission have extended so far as to supply it from time to time with new Ministers by procuring thro' the ready consent of the College at Copenhagen, whose Debtors we are on this & many other Accounts) such a Number of them (as are no less able than well disposed) to be sent to Tranquebar, that they may be there ready to go, with the over y Service of the Protestant Missions call them in case of Mortality, or other Misfortunes. Accordingly the Rev.d M.r Hutteman will be now desired to remove as soon as he can to Cudalore and to settle there as an Assistant Missionary in the room of the Rev.d M.r Breithaupt [illegible] "The Society need not, I dare " say, recommend it to you to receive him as a Colleague & a " Brother, or to press upon you both a Constant Endeavour " of that friendship & love &c. ought to join your hearts and " hands in the Work of the Lord, & in the discharge of your " respective duties, both as Ministers of the Gospel & Missionaries " It is certain that he cannot have ate present, as much as you

[illegible] these qualifications, if you have them, you will be [illegible] as one, who has it at heart, & by the good abilities [illegible] by the very steps you took unto the like Attainments [illegible] Perfections. You may therefore, till that time comes, look upon yourself to write with the Language of St Paul, try to be strong in comparison of Children & Babes in [illegible]. Let your Apostle teach you to bear the Infirmities of all with [illegible] so as not to Study or please yourself, but to please & [illegible] them, who must be dearer to you than a Neighbour [illegible] far as you can, for his good, & the common good of your Mission to Edification, & Hope of Salvation of Souls.

The Society, I say, hope that there is no need to put you even in remembrance of these things & desire to urge them by their Authority; as you will herein be forward of your own accord; since you cannot have forgotten, that heretofore a failure in love & harmony, occasioned perhaps by self-conceit or Jealousy, among their Missionaries did break out at last into such personal resentments, Strife, envyings, into such perverse disputings & Publick Miscarri-ages attended w. consequences almost as fatal to their Mission as the Divine Judgment of the late War

However to prevent the very beginnings of such evils you will do well to read over often the Standing Orders & Directions of the Society to their Missionaries.

[What is inclosed & marked as above must be left out of the Letter to Mr Fabricius instead of which the Postscript underwritten is to be added]

That God who has restored to us & you the happiness of Peace, may always have you under his Gracious Protection, preserve you in health, & bless your in all

[illegible] Faith & Labour Pays, is the Comfort & Prayer of the Society, as well as of their Secretary, who is

Your most Faithful &

W. Watts.

The Postscript to Mr Fabricius.

The Society are thankful unto God, & rejoyce with you upon your safe return to Madras, & the happy meeting you have had with your Old friend & Fellow-Labourer the Rev.d Mr Breithaupt, who has likewise their sincerest respects & best wishes. For of this we heard of the Rev.d Mr Kiernander who referred us to Letters from yourself tho' we have received none since, which makes the Society quite at a loss what else to say to you, but that they doubt not from your experience, goodness, prudence & zeal that you will do y.e most you can in that Ministry, & place to w.h Providence has called you.

They know also what an Intimacy & Affection have for many years subsisted between yourself & your Colleague & therefore scarce think it necessary to exhort you both to joint your hearts & hands in y.e great Work of our Lord & Master, nor even to bring to your Remembrance, that

[illegible] of attending I have [illegible] Opportunity Business among the Malabarians at Madura [illegible] last into such pecuniary Assistances, Stores & encouragements such persons as disputations & publick Schools are [illegible] the Consequence proves as fatal to that Mission as the Dan Judgment of the late War. However to prevent it's being of such Evils, you will both do well, to regard over & above Orders & Directions of the Society to their Missionaries

To the Rev. Mr. Huttemann at Tranquebar 22d Janry 1750/51.

Rev. Sr

As the hearts desire & care of Mr. Prof.
Francke for Propagating the Gospel in the East Indies, has extended so far as to provide the Protestants Missions there whether upon the Danish or English Settlements with a sufficient supply of Persons, no less able, than willingly dis-=pos'd to do the Work of Evangelists & Ministers: & as it were with this view, that you & your Brethren & Companions the Rev. Messrs. Schwartze & Pollzenhagen went thither the last year, as to a Station of duty, to wch Providence had called you: So I am now by Directions from our Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge (but with leave from my Professor & with the Consent of the College at Copenhagen) to request of you, to remove from Tranquebar, & to settle as soon as you can conveniently, at Cudalore, as a joint Missionary along with the Rev. Mr. Kiernander

[illegible] these Letters to your Hands always finds you & your Companions in the same Satisfy for yourself &c for all their other Ministrations — It is my Misfortune to have you & your Companions under a necessity of leaving England in such an hurry & Failing that they could have little or no personal Acquaintance & Conversation with you, however the good Character & Recommendations given to you all by y Professors were in every respect abundantly Satisfactory; & such in truth, as have given them the greatest Hopes & Confidence that by the grace of God his Work in the Gospel of his Son, our Lord & Saviour, will prosper in your hands to the Salvation of Souls —

Their Faith & Trust therefore in Him are, that he hath not only carried you safe into that distant part of the World, but likewise, that he will always have you under the Care & Protection of his good Providence, so as to preserve you in health &c to bless you, as his Instrument in all your designs and Undertakings for his Glory & the promoting of Christian Faith & Knowledge — This is the constant & fervent Prayer of the Society, as well as of their Secretary, who is, wherever he can serve you,

Rev.d Sirs

I am ordered by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge to thank you for your Letters, Journals &c.a to the all came safe to hand by our East India Ships. The Society is very glad to find, that you have proceeded by the grace of God, in the Work of your Ministry as well as you had cause to expect, considering the Wars and Troubles that were all around you. And they are well pleased with the Course you have taken to get a supply for the Spiritual wants of that part of your Christian Flock, which are dispersed in Country Villages, in having appointed one of them to report unto you their behaviour among themselves, to visit his Brethren, to Catechise & Exhort them to pray with them, and more especially to call them together to Divine Worship on Sundays.

In the meantime, whilst you are prevented in such a season of confusion & calamity from taking that care of those poor distressed & dispersed People as you wish to do, the Society propose to themselves that you will watch over your Flock at home with double Vigilance, & be the more zealous in instructing & building them up in the faith & practice of true Christianity.

Your Accot of the Scarcity & Confusion in your parts, & your dread of a Famine fare very shocking to having a tender feeling of your Distresses, and good as to lend me a sure hand. What they note only compassionate your Case but also allow of that Addition you have been forced to make to your Salleries & will continue to do so, till it shall please God to restore Peace and plenty to your Land: Nevertheless it will be expected that you use all possible Frugality, inasmuch as Benefactions to the Mission are so few & small that the Society have been oblig'd to defray for some Years the greater part of the Charge out of their other Funds.

The Society ascribe it to a Godly Zeal in you, that you drew up an Acct of the Mission, Printed it, & caus'd it to be dispers'd in India. But however they may approve of your Zeal, yet they require me to let you know, that they don't think it prudent or proper for their Missionaries to draw up, Print & circulate any Papers relating to the Mission, but such as have been perus'd, approv'd & allow'd of by the Society first of all.

The enclos'd Memorial lately presented to the Hon.ble the Directors of the East India Company, will let you see, how attentive the Society is to the Concerns of the Mission — that they lie near their Hearts, — that they lay hold of every opportunity, that Prudence & Decorum will admit of, to recommend them to the favour and protection of the Company & their Governors Abroad.

You are desir'd to inform the Society in your next Letter what Quantity of Portuguese New Testaments is wanted by the Missionaries, that if they undertake an Impression, they may be able to ascertain the Number and you are desir'd to see that Mr.
Dal's Correct Copy be sent from Tranquebar.

I am with many hearty good wishes & Prayers

I have it in command from the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, to thank you for y Letters, Journals and Accompts wch all came safe to hand by our East India Ships. I need not tell you how great was the Society's Joy, to find by these, that at length, thro the overruling Providence of a gracious God all that favour, kindness and liberality wch the Honble Court of Directors of the East India Company design'd & desired for you here at home, had been shewn towards you and carried into execution by their Governor & Council Abroad. A most comfortable token this, that ye Divine goodness watched over the Concerns of the Mission with a tender care, & will continue to be its help & support in the Day of Necessity & Trouble.

The Inclos'd Memorial lately presented to the Court of Directors will let you see how desirous the Society was that your Gratitude & Thankfullness might be made known to them for your great Benefactions & express'd in the warmest terms. It will likewise serve to convince you how attentive the Society always is to the Concerns of the Missions, that they lie near their Hearts, & that they embrace every opportunity that Prudence & Decorum will admit of, to recommend them to the favour & protection of the Company & their Governors Abroad. And tho Society has the comfort to hope from the past good Conduct, the discreet Behaviour & Exemplary Lives of their Missionaries, that they shall never be ashamed to appear in their behalf, but as they have the best cause in the World to patronize, viz

I am ordered by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge to thank you for your Letters &c. came safe to hand by our East India Ships. The Society is very glad to hear that your Congregation increases: & pray that the Lord may still add to your Church multitudes of Believers, both Men, and Women, of such as shall be saved, when he comes to judge the World in Righteousness & Mercy, thro' his own Merits, Mediation & Intercession. You know Sirs, from your own Conviction and belief in the Gospel what your Reward will be for converting Sinners from ye Errors of their ways and for turning many to that Righteousness, which is of God through the Faith of Christ. The Society therefore think that they can have no need to exhort so faithful & able Missionaries to perseverance in their Duty.

It is a pleasure to your Friends & Benefactors in England to observe that you have it always in mind and at your heart to keep up a constant and friendly Correspondence with your Brethren at Madras and Cudalore & this as well in regard to the great Influence such a Christian Spirit amongst you may have upon the Heathen, but likewise to the Advantages & Assistances you may receive

It was with a great deal of pleasure & satisfaction the Society receiv'd your Letters of 23 Sept. 1753 & 13 Feby 1754 together with your Receipts, Disbursements & Journals for the year 1753, and I am commanded in their Name to signify their approbation of your prudent good Conduct in the Affairs of the Mission. The Society entertain great hopes that the Work of the Lord will continue to prosper thro' your hands, and that the knowledge of the Gospel will spread and abound more and more.

They observe in your Accounts that you have particularly mentioned in what manner you laid out the five hundred Pagodas given by the East India Company to the Mission and do not doubt but you did it in the most frugal & useful Manner.

Enclosed you have an Invoice of the Silver & Stores shipped on Board the Dorrington, and consigned to Govr Saunders who is desired to order them to be delivered to you. The Chest of Silver marked E. M. F. N.o 16 is to be sent to Mr Kiernander and Huttemann, as also one half of the Books in Chest N.o 6 which are for the benefit of the poor Soldiers &c at Fort St Davids.

In the Chest marked E. M. N.o 15 you will find 1311 Ounces of Silver, 376 of which are to pay your Salaries, & of the remainder 935, were added by Order of the Ziegenhagen.

The Society could not get leave to send you this year the usual present of Beer the Dorrington being full of Stores &c. for the Company's Settlements.

Reverend Sirs,

By y Walpole

It hath pleas'd God to remove Mr. Walls, your late Friend and Correspondent, & my Brother Secretary, after a long and painful Illness, out of this into a better World, his Department of Business for the present, thro' y good pleasure of the Society devolves upon me: and among other Duties, that of corresponding with the Society's good and faithful Missionaries in the East Indies. An Employment this, I do assure You Gent.n of the most agreeable kind, as my heart has been long knit to you, in the closest bands of affection, on Account of your Piety, Zeal & Labour in the great and excellent Cause you are embark'd in, of Spreading the Light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, thro' the dark Corners of the East; and of turning poor enslav'd Sinners from the Power of Satan, unto God: and wish I may have it in my Power as much as it is my Inclination, to do you any real Services.

My first Letter must be a short one, because I am not honour'd by the Society with any particular Instructions and Directions to you, at this time, in relation to your Missions; however I have the pleasure to inform you, that your joint Letters of 7 Oct. 1754, & 10 Feby 1755, together with y.e Accounts of Receipts and Disbursements, as also your Journals for the Year 1754 with a Letter from Mr. Huttemann, and his Refutation of part of Barclay's Apology, are all come safe to hand.

The Society have evidenc'd their approbation of your Conduct, and their Regard for your Persons, by the usual remittances of Stores & Silver. These they have consign'd to the Care of your Brethren at Madras with Orders to forward your Portions & Allotment to Cudulore.

Rev.d Sirs,

Since my former Letter of y.e 7th Inst.t was seal'd and sent away, the Society after examining y.r Acc.t of Receipts and Disbursements a fresh, and reconsidering the several articles of Expence in your Account have order'd me to let you know that they observe with great concern and some displeasure, how much you have exceeded the bounds of Prudence & good Oeconomy in your Disbursements; notwithstanding their repeated Cautions ag.t your launching out into unnecessary Expences, and even after you have been told over & over again, that they have no Funds to support them. They bid me enquire of you Gentlemen why were your Mission Houses to be enlarg'd & new Buildings, and more conveniences, notwithstanding you were then in debt, and under the apprehensions of War and Famine, and were forc'd to purchase y.r necessaries of Life at an extraordinary Expence? Why was this done, without application & leave from the Society? Why at such a juncture was your Church Yard to be enclos'd with any expensive Brickwall? Why could you not have gon on till your own Finances were recruited, as you did before? — Shou'd you not have been more frugal & provident that there you might have been in a condition to have repair'd y.r Damages you have suffer'd not only in your Churches but in your Mission Dwellings, by the Monsoon Rains & Winds? Shou'd you not always have something in stock on your Publick Stocks for such accidents, without entering upon Projects and Schemes of Buildings, and all this at a time, that you were oblig'd to raise allowances for meat, spices Firewood, and sundry other Things in Housekeeping Expences &c.t of Children as well as Men?

Rev.d Sirs

In obedience to the Orders of the Society I wrote to you by the Walpole in 9.br Month of Feb.y last. The purport of my Letter was to inform you, that your Letters, Journals &c. of the former Year were happily arrivd and that the Society had sent you the usual Presents & Stores, as an endearing token of their continud Regard for Yourselves and Your Missions. I have now the pleasure to acquaint you, that the Eastcourt is since arrivd, and has brought fresh Dispatches from you, viz your joint Letter dated 23.d Feb.y last, as also a duplicate of a Letter writ in Oct.r 1755 together with an Acc.t of Your Receipts & Disbursements for 9.br Year past, & a Journal of Your Mission.

These I have laid before the Society, of whom, if I should have any thing in charge to say to you thereupon, I shall not fail to communicate it to you by the latter Ships. In the mean time my Instructions are to let you know, that the Society upon hearing that some of 9.br Comp.y's Ships were upon the point of Sailing, came to a Resolution to lay hold of the Opportunity of sending whatever Money or Stores could be got ready, & wou'd be granted to go Freight Free by the continu'd favour of the Directors. The enclosed Invoice will let you see what the Princess Augusta now brings for your use & benefit of 9.br Missions and as to the Silver, that you must be contented to wait for till the next Ships, as the Remittances from Germany are not ready. The Society leaves it to the Gentlemen to make the Distribution of the Rhenish and Stores among your Brethren at Cuddalore & Tranquebar according to the Proportions settled and marked in the Invoice.

The English Books and Tracts are designed by the Society to supply the wants of the Soc. both in your own Mission and in all the English Settlements more particularly wherein their Naval Asylums or Schools are concern'd. Mr Kiernander's wants of English Books is to be supplied out of this Stock.

The Society are still in hopes that your past difficulties have been relieved by the providential Arrival of those Ships as I said you last Year. I do assure you Gentlemen, that they have a compassionate sense of your various hardships & distresses, & lament the present Low state of your Missions, and most earnestly wish and do pray, that all those may be equally affected who are Friends and wish success to so Christian a design, that they may be as willing as they are able to contribute in Benefactions to an abundant relief & supply of its Necessities. To these Assurances of good Will and affection towards you and your Christian Flocks the Society add their Prayers that the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the Love of God and the Fellowship of the Holy Ghost may be with you and remain with you always, with whom very cordially joins

In my former Letter of 24 Decemr. last, I had the pleasure to Acquaint you that y.e Society had obtain'd leave of the Court of Directors of the East India Company to Ship on Board the Princess Augusta the customary Presents & Stores for the Service and Benefit of yourselves and of your Brethren at Cudulore and Tranquebar, according to the Proportions settled and mark'd in the Invoice enclos'd in the said Letter.

The Silver &c.a I inform'd you at that time could not be conveniently sent, by the above Ship the Grantham Capt.n Jn.o Oliver now brings together with a Chest of Mathematical Instruments &c.a which you are desired to forward to Mr. Kiernander. The Chest of Silver put up in three Baggs mark'd E.M.F contains 2211 Ounces, and the Bagg mark'd E.M.K containing 853 Oz.s is for the Revd. Messrs. In Obedience to the Orders of the Society I embrace this Opportunity by the London Capt. Allright to acquaint you of the safe Arrival of your Letters of 7th Jan.y 1756 & 25th Feb.y 1757. I need not tell you, Gent.n, how acceptable to y.r Society your dispatches allways are, as they contain such satisfactory proofs of your zealous Endeavours to spread the glorious Light of the Gospel amongst those who still sit in darkness and the Shadow of Death. These pleasing Evidences of your fidelity to your great Master, and of your Compassion and Christian Regard for the Souls of those for whom he shed his most precious Blood, as they must attract the love and esteem of all good Men who have heard and known your Labours of Love, so have they raised you high in the affection & Regard of the Society. Nor are they without the most comfortable assurances that you will go on as you have begun, in Faith & Patience, Humility and Meekness, Brotherly kindness & fervent Charity, to conquer difficulties, strengthen the hands of each other, and increase & edify the Church of God

The Society lament the loss you sustain by the death of Mr. Poltzenhagen: but when the Lord takes one Labourer home, he can send forth another into his Harvest.

It will be matter of some Consolation to you to understand that the Society have recovered Money Insurd on the Doddington, wch has enabled Mr. Ziegenhagen to remit you 1760 ℔ of Silver amounting to 169 6 8 Sterling. I am aware that this Remittance will fall something short of your Expectations. But if a reserve had not been made for Insuring this Year, the Society would have been burdened with a double Insurance. They are in hopes however of reimbursing you the Sum wch they deducted for this Years Insurance, and of defraying that Charge at their own Cost for the time to come.

As the several Missionaries are still in want of Testaments in the Portuguese Language, the Society have it in their Thoughts to procure a New Impression. But previous to this they expect an Answer to what they ordered Mr. Watts to write to you upon that head 12 Feb. 1754.

The Society most affectionately commend you and your Flocks to the Loving kindness of God, thro' the Love of his Son Our Lord Jesus Christ, for an abundant supply of all your wants both Bodily and Spiritual with whom sincerely joins

It is with great pleasure I lay hold of the present opportunity by the London Capt Albright of renewing my Correspondence with you as well as in Obedience to the Orders of the Society as out of my own affectionate Regard and Esteem for you.

It will be a satisfaction to you Gentlemen to understand that your Letters and Journals both by the Eastcourt and Walpole are come safe to hand. Your Account of the many severe Trials & Crosses you have been exercised with through the failure of the usual supplies by the unfortunate loss of the Doddington, could not pass unpitied & unregarded by the Society. They were glad however that you were able to get Credit in India for £350.-.- Sterling: and they hope that that Sum together with the Remittance by the Walpole and Princess Augusta have kept you out of Distress. The above Sum of £350.-.- 10/ ch you drew a Bill on Mr Ziegenhagen for here in London has been paid as your share of the Money Insured upon the Doddington, and since recovered of the Office of Insurance, and therefore you are to expect no more by these Ships than your Salaries

In their Remittances to your Mission, there a mistake in the Person who bought the Silver, there is a deficiency of £17.10.0 due to you out of the Money received from the Doddington. This deficiency shall be made good in the next Remittance. The Society had it also in their Thoughts to send over a Present to your Poor, being touched with a Compassion. sense of their wants and miseries: and if you can get Credit in India for the Sum they intended to bestow in Alms, viz £32.0.10 As also for the Ballance of £17.10.0 wch is your due making £50.-.- in the whole, you may draw upon me for that Sum, and the Society will pay the Bills.

You will be pleas'd to allot a proportion of the religious Books you are to receive to your Brethren at Cudulore.

The Society commend you to the grace & favour of God, for a rich supply of all needful Helps and Consolations to enable you to persevere in the good Work you are engaged in, to the end his Name may be glorified, the Kingdom of his Dear Son enlarg'd and you his faithful Servants abundantly rewarded at the glorious appearing of Our Lord & Saviour Jesus Christ

This waits upon you by Advice that this years Presents & Stores from the Society and from your Friends in Germany are put on Board the Denham Capta Tryon and the Oxford Capta Webber, consigned to the Care of the Hon.ble Gov.r Pigot with a Request from the Society that he will be pleased to see them safely delivered to one of you. It was the Opinion of the Officers at the East India House that it would not be prudent to risque the whole in one Bottom; wch made us take this method of dividing the Stores. It is hoped however by the Favour of Providence, that no part will be lost.

You will be pleased Gentlemen to convey to your Brethren at Cudulore & Tranquebar their respective Shares:

It is wth a particular pleasure I acquaint you that the Society have thought good this year to send a Hundred Pounds over & above the stated Salaries to the two English Missions to be divided betwixt you in equal Proportions. In Consideration that whilst they are thus Administering to your Necessities even beyond their Abilities, you will be encouraged to go on in the Work of your Mission and thereby bring glory to God, and enlarge the Kingdom of his dear blessed Son.

P.S. I may have another opportunity, in the Divine Permission, of Writing to you again by some Ships we hear are to Sail in July. I shall put an end to this Letter especially as ye Meetings of the Society are Adjourn'd during the Holy Days, & I have nothing particular to impart to you by their Command.

Be assur'd however Gentlemen, that your own Personal Welfare as well as the Concerns of your Mission are ever near and dear to ye Society, and give me leave to add that their Secry also bears you a singular respect as being

With my best wishes that this Letter may come safe to your hands, I write it to acquaint you, that the Society, your ever constant

Friend

Friends and Benefactors, I have consigned to your Brethren at Madras. The Presents and Stores wch they have allotted for the Service of your Mission this Year: w^h an Order to them to deliver to you your respective Shares. These I have the pleasure to inform you, will exceed your Expectations, as the Society compassionating your present Exigency have been so good as to send you £50 — more than your Salaries. As this seasonable Donation will encrease your Joy, and trust in God, so the Society make no doubt but it will also quicken yr Zeal and Activity in his Service.

The Box of English Books is to be divided equally between both Missions, except those directed to Mr. Huttemann, wch being bought at his request and the Cost to be deducted out of his Salary, are for his sole use.

As I hope for another opportunity of writing to you more at large when I may receive some Instructions from the Society relative to your Mission, I shall add no more at present, but my assurances of the Society's constant regard for you and your Flocks: and that I am with affectionate Esteem

In Obedience to the Orders of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge I embrace this opportunity by the early Ships of acknowledging the Receipt of your last joint Letter, and of expressing the high Satisfaction y.e Society takes in the Accounts of your Zealous endeavours to make the way of the Lord, and his saving health known among the blind & idolatrous Nations to whom you are sent to Preach y.e Gospel.

The success wherewith it hath pleas'd God hitherto to crown those Endeavours will, they make no doubt, Gentlemen, animate and encourage you to go on, in his divine Strength, whose cause you are maintaining to perfect the good work you have upon your hands to y.e glory of God's holy Name, and the enlargement of the Kingdom of our Lord & Saviour Jesus Christ.

Whilst the Society beholds with pleasure the fruits of your Spiritual labours, they forget not to keep up a most affectionate Regard for your Persons, or a benevolent Concern for your bodily necessities. And therefore they have sent you the usual Presents, & have also made good what was deducted out of the remittances last

Revd Sirs!

Your Joint Letter of 25th July last, with your Journal for 1750 to the end of April 1751, came safe by the unseen Capt.n Glover, to the great Satisfaction of the Society; who have been under sad Apprehensions for their worthy Missionaries and their Poor Flocks in this late Season of Danger & distress the Hardships you have suffered and the Perills you have been in, so affectingly set forth in y.r Journal, could not but excite in the Society a tender fellow feeling and Commiseration of your case; though at the same time, the Manifest Tokens of Gods Mercifull & Gracious Interposition in your favor, his watchfull Care over you & your people, Shelt'ring you under the Shadow of his wings till the danger that Threatened you was Overpast, his raising you up Friends and Benefactors abroad, when to all human Appearance y.r Bread of Meat was Spent and your Cruse of Oil failed, and lastly his Preservation of your Mission House &c. & restoring you again to a quiet and peaceable Habitation, all these Marks of the divine Superintendency and distinguishing Regard for you and your People, fill'd them with devout and grateful acknowledgements to the Majesty of heaven, and caused them to praise the Lord for his Goodness, & extol y.r Wonders that he hath Done on y.r behalf. The Proofs Moreover you have given in these trying times, as well as heretofore, of your own Faith and Patience & perseverance Administer no small Consolation to the Society, and almost Superseide the necessity of exhorting you to continue Stedfast immoveable always abounding in the work of the Lord. And therefore I shall proceed to inform you that the Supplies for the pres

Years are put on Board the Latham Capt. Mayhew, Bound for Bengall & Consigned to Mr. Bridgman to whom I have ordered an Acquainted Him in the Name of the Society to send you your Shares to Madrass, the Ships Destined for by the Post were so crowded with the Company's Stores, that the Society's Messenger, who did the Charge of this Business, was Obliged to take up with this Method of Conveyance, however there is no Danger I hope of its not reaching your hands. Be pleased by the first Opportunity after the Receipt of this to inform y.d Society fully of the state of your Mission both with respect to Spiritualls & Temporalls, & if you can, let the know how many Persons have been Guided into it from the beginning. The Society Gentlemen Commend you to the Grace of God, beseeching him who alone, whatever pains we may take in planting and watering y.r Gospel, is able to give y.r Increase, to Shower down the choicest of his Blessings on your Persons Labours & Endeavours, and they leave this

Rev. Sirs!

I am ordered by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge to express the great Satisfaction they have from your Joint Letters of Octo 1750 & of the 1759 whereby they were inform'd of your health & welfare, and of the Success of yr Ministrations; it is with pleasure they reflect that this Mission, ever since its first Establishment, has been blessed with wise & faithful Labourers, who have exerted themselves in the good Work with an Application and Assiduity proportion'd to the greatness of the Undertaking, & with a Zeal worthy the Primitive Ages of Christianity, and as We may reasonably hope, that such Endeavours, in a Design so truly Christian and so agreable to the purpose of God Manifested in the Gospel, cannot but be highly acceptable to Him, so we may with assurance depend upon his Blessing, & who has promised to be with those that labour in this Apostolical work to the End of the World: and therefore the Society do not doubt of your being enabled to go on Chearfully in this good work of Confirming & & Converting Others, & of being made the happy Instruments of adding daily to the Church such as shall be Saved.
The Society were affected at the relation of the great hardships & Sufferings that your Brethren at Madras and Cudulore have undergone through the Calamity of War. But at the same time they magnify the Goodness of God in their preservation and for all the other Instances of his Paternal Love & kindness towards them. They Commend to Mr Cultman & his Concerns to yr Brotherly Care & Regard, and beseech you to make this present Raile as Comfortable to him as you can In your next Letter pray favour me with an Acct of the Numbers Rec.d into your Schools as also of the Converts to your Mission from its 1st Establishment.

The Society have sent you the Usual Presents by way of Bengal, in Testimony of their Affection & good will towards you, & Charge me to assure you of the Continuance of their Patronage & Esteem. I desire also to be remembered — Reverend Gentlemen

Society, Sir, Sympathize with you in the great Variety of Afflictions you have been exercised since Cuddalore fell into y.e Enemys hand, By which sad Calamity you was driven with y.r Family & part of y.e Flock into Exile, & constraind to abandon y.e Work of y.e Mission on y.e Spot where it had been long watered with y.e heavenly dew of Gods Blessing, who made it to diligent Care, an Event this full of Matter for Sorrow & Humiliation, But y.e Lord is just & wise & good in all his Ways. — This you have acted since this unlucky affair has met with y.r Societys Approbation. They commend you for returning to Tranquebar & are well satisfyd with the manner in which you have spent y.r Time there. But as y.r Mission House at Cudelore, has been preserved through an over ruling Providence, the Society recommend it to you, Sir, to return thither, as soon as your Way shall be made plain, for so doing, with safety & a likelyhood of Success. In y.r mean while they do not doubt of y.r employing yourself usefully where you are, till such time as Providence shall open a door for your peaceful return to y.r old Habitation, & permit you to revisit & gather together again your Flock there, which thro' y.r late great Calamity has been scatterd abroad. With respect to Mr Huismanders Departure to Calcutta, I have writ to him the thoughts of y.r Society on that subject. To the Revd Messrs

Reverend Sirs

You will have y.e pleasure to see by last Printed Acco.t of y.r Mission, annexed to the Anniversary Sermon, preached by The Revd Dr Ashton, that your Joint Letters of 24 Dec.r 1759 & of y.e 13 of Feb.ry 1760 were safely received. As the Society have all along had a compassionate Sense of the Miseries & Hardships to which you & y.r Flocks have been exposed amidst the Confusion & Calamities of the Wars, which has so long raged in y.r Parts, so It was a great Relief to their Anxiety on y.r Acco.t to be informed of the Compleat Victory obtained over the French near Wandewash, by which Interposition of a Gracious Providence, you were eased of y.r Apprehensions & delivered from the Dangers wherewith you were threatened. They can easily imagine during this gloomy Period of Terror & Danger, that y.r Work of the Mission went on but slowly, But their just concern for this Obstruction to the Gospel having its free Course as heretofore, has been abundantly relieved by your accounts that you have since visited the Heathens without Disturbance, among whom you Diligently Employ y.r time, & urge their Conversion by y.e most powerful Arguments: w.ch you hereby humbly [illegible] in the Divine Goodness, as you also do, that shall hereafter see the fruits of your Labour springing up into a more abundant Increase! ——.

As in my former Letter of the 2d of April 1760. I had it in charge from the Society, to assure you, Gentlemen, of their most zealous & steady Attachment to the glorious Cause you, their faithful & approved Missionaries are engaged in, & of their affectionate Regard for your Persons, so I have their Orders now to repeat these Assurances, both for your Encouragement & Incitement to be Stedfast, immoveable, allways abounding in the Work of the Lord, knowing that your Labour will not be in vain in the Lord. And it is with Singular Pleasure I am to inform you, that the Society ever ready to befriend you, have allotted to Each of you this Year a Benefaction of £20 over & above your Salaries, which they were enabled to do, by a noble Legacy of £1000 bequeathed to them for the sole Use of Propagating Christianity in Foreign Parts. For which remarkable Instance of Gods Goodness & tender Regard for y.e Gospel of his Dear Son planting by your Ministry in the Heathen World, you will join with them in hearty Thanksgivings to the Fountain of all Grace & Love. To the Rev Mr Huttemann
at Tranquebar

Reverend Sir

The Societys last printed Acco: of the State of the East India Mission, which accompanys this Letter, will give you pleasure to see, that your several dispatches in the years 1758. 1759 & 1760 have been received by y: Soc: & a commendable Report made of y: Personal Labours Encouragement, as for the Satisfaction of the Contributors & subscribers to so excellent a Design. Some Instructions were sent you by ye Soc^y last year in Relation to ye forlorn State of ye Cudulore Mission, w^ch, it is hoped, you have received, & Conform'd thereto, to ye best of your Power. What has occured since to ye Society's thoughts, & what has been ye Issue of their Deliberations on that Subject, you will best learn from their Minutes, a Copy of which I have enclosed. The Society commend you, Sir, for sending ye Catechists frequently to Cudulore, to instruct & exhort your poor Flock, which is to them a sure token of the Continuance of ye affectionate Concern for those distress'd Outcasts, & of ye good Disposition & Readiness to return to ye former Charge, as soon as it shall please God to pave ye Way, by restoring Peace & Safety to their Borders. ..... You will read with Pleasure ye Acco^t of a Noble Legacy left lately to the Missions of £1000: So bountiful & seasonable a Supply in a time of Need, has caused many Thanksgivings unto God, here at Home, as it will doubtless do abroad, I rejoice with you for ye fresh Mark of the Society's favour bestowed upon you by a generous Donation of £20 over & above ye Salary: & beg Leave to add my own affectionate Respects to those of the Society, as well as most hearty Good Wishes for ye Happiness both Temporal & Eternal, as being Yours &c.^a

To the Revd. The Danish Missionaries at Tranquebar.

Reverend Sirs

I am commanded by the Society for promoting Christian Knowledge, your good Friends & well wishers, to salute you in their Name, & thank you for y.r agreeable Account of the prosperous State of the Schools & Flocks under your Care, in y.r joint Letter of 7.th January 1760. They have likewise ordered me to transmit to you a Copy of their Resolutions with respect to the Destination of Messrs. Kiernander & Kuttleman: & to entreat y.r favourable Attention to a Concurrence with their Request for sending one of y.r ablest Catechists to Calcutta, to assist Mr. Kiernander in his New Mission; which is too laborious an Employ for Him Alone. And for this The Soc.y will appoint Him a Salary. The Society desire your acceptance of the Presents sent in the Box. capt. H. according to the Invoice inclosed.

That you may long enjoy Health & Success in the Prosecution of your Labours for Propagating the Gospel & Establishing true Christianity among the Heathen, are y.r Constant Wishes & Prayers of the Soc.y, wherein I am most sincerely, Your

To the Reverend. Mr Kiernander at Calcutta

Rev.d Sir

I hope you have rec.d my Letter of 2 April 1760, addressed to you in the Name, & by the Order of y.r Society: who doubt not of your having conformed to their Instructions for the Conduct of yourself in y.r new Mission, The Zeal & Pains which your Letters shew you have exerted in Opening a School for teaching & grounding Poor Children in y.e Faith of Christ, & y.e acct you give of the large Numbers that resort to it, afford the Society much Satisfaction; & fill them with the most pleasing hopes that this your labour of Love may be effectual, thro' God's Grace, to render these Catechumens & others that shall succeed them, a Joy & Crown of rejoicing to their Benefactors & yourself, at y.e Revelation of our Lord & Saviour Jesus Christ from Heaven, in y.e last, most glorious Day! ... To the large Packet of Books sent last Year for y.e use of your Scholars, The Soc.y have ordered another valuable Present of the like kind by this year's Ships. The Sentiments & Resolutions of the Board with Respect to y.r Present Situation & the State of y.e Tabulare Mission (which you must be anxious to know) I chuse to send you, as expressed in the enclosed Extract from their Book

Part of the foregoing Order which more immediately relates to yourself, I am commanded, to add, that the Soc.y strongly recommend it to you, to turn your Thoughts & Aims towards y.e Conversion of the Heathen, as the most important Business of a Missionary, as soon as you have got a Assistance from Tranquebar for your Management of your Schools, & your own Personal Labours therein may be Spared, & congratulate you, Dear Sir, upon y.e fresh Token of y.e Soc.y have just now given you of their affectionate Regards, by voting you a Benefaction of £ 20 over & above your Salary, which They were enabled to do by a late Legacy, as large as unexpected, of £ 1000 towards the support of the East India Mission. You will join with the Soc.y in Thanksgiving to God for this bountiful & most seasonable Supply to y.e Wants of y.e Mission Fund, & let it strengthen your hands, as it has done theirs, in carrying on that most necessary & excellent Work of propagating the Light of Christianity through the dark Corners of the Earth. That the divine Blessing may attend you in all your Domestick as well as Pastoral Concerns is the ardent Prayer of the Soc.y as also of yours &c.

P.S. You will see by y.e Printed Accts. of the Missions

To the Hon.ble Gov.r Palke at Fort St George

Sir

The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge take the liberty of addressing you in like manner as they have formerly done your worthy Predecessors in the Government of Fort St George, with their humble request that you will be pleas'd to take the Rev.d Mess.rs Fabricius & Breithaupt, their Missionaries at Madras, under your Protection, and give them such Countenance as their own Personal merit and the excellent Cause they are engaged in, shall deserve. And as the Govern.r of Fort St George have all along permitted y.e Society to consign whatever has been sent for the Service of the Mission to the Care of the Gov.rs so they humbly hope that you will be so good as to grant them the same Indulgence. In confidence of which and in obedience to their Orders, I have enclos'd an Invoice of such Stores and Silver as the Society have sent this Year by the Grosvenor, the Houghton & the Hardwick, humbly begging the favour of you to cause them to be deliver'd to the Rev.d Mr Fabricius for the use of the Protestant Missionaries on the Coast of Coromandel. With the respectful Compliments of the Society

The sudden departure of the Grosvenor & the Hardwich will only permit me at this Time to apprize you in a few Lines that the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge your good and constant Benefactors, have consigned to your Care the several Presents of Silver & Stores which they have been enabled to send this Year for the use of their Missionaries in the East Indies: the particulars of which and the respective Portions of each Mission, you will find distinctly discribed in the enclos'd Invoice

Mr Calthe the new Govr. of Fort St George has been wrote to, concerning the Stores &c. & humbly requested to cause them to be deliverd into your hands: and as soon as this is done, the Society hope that you will embrace the very first opportunity of sending to your Brethren at Tranquebar, Cudulore, & Calcutta, their several Shares. The Bagg of Silver marked E. M. K. N°3 on Board the Grosvenor & the Chest of Books mark'd E. M. K N°7. on Board the Houghton, you are desir'd to send to Mr Kiernander at Calcutta: The other Stores to be divided between Mr Huttemann, Mr Breithaupt and your self.

As another opportunity will present itself soon of Writing to you again, and therefore I shall conclude for the present with Subscribing myself.

Reverend & Dear Sir

By the Account given of your Mission at Calcutta in the Appendix to the last Anniversary Sermon page 73 you will have the Pleasure to observe that your Letters to the Society have been received & their Contents communicated to the Publick: and it is a singular Satisfaction to myself Sir, that I have the Orders of the Society to express their Approbation of your Conduct in your new Sphere of Action, and to promise you all the Help & Assistance within their Power to enable you to carry on the good Work you are engaged in. They were concerned for the Difficulties you have been put to by the Detainer of the large Packet of Books consigned to you by the Latham, but they have been eased since by Mr Fabricius of their Anxiety on that Account, who in a Letter of 11 Oct 1760 writes that he had sent you the Chest which he had before kept back by Mistake This with a large Store of Books and Stationary Ware now coming over, it is to be hoped will be an abundant Supply for all your Wants. With Respect to an Assistant in your School, the Society make no Doubt, but you will find an able one in the Catechist whom your Brethren at Tranquebar have been desired to spare for that Service

Messrs Butler & Cape have highly obliged the Society by the kind and christian Offices they have done you to whom they desire to make a Tender of their Affectionate Respects with my own good Wishes for your welfare

I have the Pleasure to acquaint you that your Joint Letters of 10. 11 Janry 1761 were receiv.d by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowlege with all that Approbation & Satisfaction which their Good & worthy Correspondents at Tranquebar could expect or desire.
They rejoice Gentlemen in every Instance of the Divine Benignity & Grace towards your Persons, your Household & your Flocks and pray for an Increase of all Good Things to yourselves and Them.

The Society observe with Pleasure that you keep up a close conversation & acquaintance with the Gentile Natives: this they look upon as the most likely means of any without Miracles to bring them acquainted with the Christian Religion; for the Truths of the Gospel are of so important & affecting a Nature and on their own Account so worthy of all Men to be received, that the Society would fain hope that these added to the assisting assisting Love & infinite Mercy of Almighty God in the Salvation of a sinful World, thro' his only beloved Son must if they are but made fully known approve themselves to the Judgment and Consciences of all reasonable & honest Persons and fill their Minds with Peace & Joy in believing them notwithstanding the Prejudices & Corruptions which are in the World thro' Error and Lust

The Society hope you have been able to comply with their Request signified in my Letter of 14. March 1761 of sending one of your ablest Catechists to Calcutta to assist Mr Kiernander in his new Mission, which is too laborious an Employ for him alone. They beg your Acceptance of the Stores sent out by the Grosvenor & the Houghton

Capt Ward

I have the Pleasure to acquaint you that Your joint Letters of 30th March & 2 April in the preceding Year together with Your Journal & Account of Rects & Disbursements are come to hand & were recieved by the Society with all the Marks of Affection, Approbation & esteem. The Zeal you continue to shew in Carrying on their Designs by promoting Xtian Knowledge within the Sphere of Your Mission, is very acceptable to Your Benefactors, & will redound, they trust, both to the Praise & Glory of God in the Conversion & Salvation of many Souls & to Your own unspeakable Comfort at the Glorious appearing of the Saviour & Judge of Mankind— Lieutenant Leaber who gave you Credit for £40 in India & for which Sum You drew upon me a Bill arrived here about 2 or 3 Months agoe & brought me an agreeable Account of Your State & Condition when he left Madrass. I immediately paid him the Sum he had advanced to You & have deducted the same according to Your Desire out of Your Salaries. If any other Opportunity should presens Itself of the like Kind. The Society would have you embrace it & they will readily honour Your Bills so long as they do not exceed your Appointments.
I acquainted You in a former Letter that Mrs Jackson has sent You a Present of five Guineas for Your Care & affectionate regard to her Poor Son This together with £1 Sterling of mine to reimburse you for Your Loan to my own Son. is put up in the Society's Bags & added to their Remittances Among the Society's Presents you will find some choise & excellent Treatises for Your own Use. The Society would be glad to know whether the Mission Library has escaped the Ravages of War & if it has a Catalouge of the Books it contains would be very acceptable to them. Be pleased to communicate this to Mr Huttemann at Cudulore.

The Society salute you both with all Kindness & respect & recommend You in their Prayers to the Protection & Blessing of Almighty God. wherein give me Leave to join most Heartily and affectionately, who am in Every Good Office within my Power at their Serv.ce

Rev.d & Dear Sir

By y.e Vessey

Your Letters of the 15.th of May the 17.th of Sept.r & y.e 5.th of Oct.r 1761. as also that of the 4.th of January 1763. have been received by the Society & I have their Orders to acquaint You. that the Contents of them as exhibiting fresh proofs of Your fidelity & Zeal in the Work of the Mission afforded great Pleasure & Satisfaction. to Your Friends & Benefactors here.

The Favour shewn to the Mission by the Governor & Council at Madras. in their generous Grant of so large a Spot of Ground at Dennis cotta for the Use of the Missionaries. is considered by the Society as a Providential Occurrence as well in regard to the present Support of the Mission as its future Enlargement. What You have humbly proposed to the Society in consequence of this considerable Addition to the Mission Fund will be thought of at a Convenient Time.

You

You will see by the Invoice of Silver & Stores, which accompany this Letter that I have deducted out of this Years Remittances the Money I paid to Mr. Crooke & some lesser Sums besides expended for your own private Use. The Opportunity You gave me of paying my Respects to that worthy Gentleman during his Stay in London gave me great Pleasure & the more so as I found him a hearty Friend & Wellwisher both to Yourself & the Society's other worthy Missionaries in the East Indies. Among Your Presents You will find a few select Books in Divinity for your own Use. A Catalogue of the Mission Library (if such remain after the ravages of War) will be acceptable to the Society. In Compliance with Your request I had Leave from the Board to send You a Chest of red Port instead of Your Usual Present of Beer. The Society will desire to know how the Beer & Wine prove. They order Good things & would be sorry to have their Missionaries ill serv'd. I am sorry I was obliged to send back se infecta Your Letter of Attorney, impowering me to recieve Your Pay as Chaplain of the Medway. After Yr. Instructions I sent You in a former Letter on this Subject. The next Time You apply to the Navy Board, I hope, they will not dispute Your Warrant.

The Society salute You with all Kindness & Respect & recommend You In their Prayers to the Protection & Blessing of Almighty God. wherein give me Leave to join most humbly & affectionately. Who am in Every Good Office within my Power, as Their Secretary

You will receive, I hope, by The Carnarvon the several Articles mentioned in the Inclosed Invoice, which are a Present to You from Your constant Friends & Benefactors, the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.
The Silver for the Payment of Your Salary &c. must be reserved for one of the latter Ships. as all the remittances from Germany are not come in Yet, & I do not as yet know what Proportion may be allotted to ~~the~~ your Mission. I am also waiting for the Society's Instructions how to Answer Your Dispatches received in the Preceeding Year, which shall be Communicated to You in due time, by

Rev.d & Dear Sir

I hope You will receive by the Worcester Capt.n Hall, the Several Articles mentioned in the Inclosed Invoice, which The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge have Consign'd to Yo.r Care, for the use of Mr Holtteman & Yo.r Brethren at Tranquebar, request the favour of You to get their respective Shares convey'd to them by the first Opportunity. It gave the Society concern to Understand from the Person employed by them ~~Society~~ in getting the Things Shipped, that the whole could not come in one Bottom: & that Yo.r Part was laid by, to be put on Board some other Ship, that is to Sail some time Hence. In this we are Obliged to Submit to the Ordering of the East India Company's Officers: who alledge that all the Society's Stores would take up too much Room, unless they were so Divided. It will give You pleasure to learn that the Society have been favoured with several Dispatches from You & Your Brethren in the Year past, that I expect their Instructions in what Manner to Answer them by the Next Ships. You will please to present my Cordial Respects to Your Worthy Colleague, to Mr Holtteman & the Gentlemen at Tranquebar: as also to Communicate the Contents of this Letter to them.

To the Rev.d Mr Kiernander at Calcutta in Bengal

Rev.d & Dear Sir

Since my former Letter of the 4.th Ult.o by the Carnarvon, the Publick has been alarm'd with the Melancholly News of the Disturbances in Bengal, & of the Sore Evils which have befallen some of y.e Settlements belonging to The Hon.ble East India Company, in y.e Neighbourhood of Calcutta. Nor are they without their Uneasiness least the dreadful Calamity has reached that Place also.

The Society Sir, cannot be unmindful of You & Your Concerns at this perilous Juncture, nor fail in recommending Both to the Mercy & Protection of the Great Gaurdian of His People, howsoever distressed or wheresoever dispersed over the Face of the whole Earth.

Should it please God by this Scourge to put a Stop to the Progress of Your Mission at Calcutta, would it not be adviseable for You, to return to Yo.r Former Station at Cudulore, & take part with Mr Klitteman in y.e Work which is much too heavy for Him, to go through alone? I offer it as my private Opinion that this Step would be pleasing to the Society, altho' I have not as Yet received any Instructions from them on this Subject; but expect to receive them before all y.e Ships for this Year depart hence.

All the Presents for Your Mission are put on Board the Carnarvon as I wrote You word before, at which time I sent an Invoice of the Particulars. Your Salary You are to receive from Mr Fabricius at Madras as also Mr Crossleys Franks Remittance of £ [illegible] after deducting £13.15.2. being the Amount of a Bill which You Drew upon the Society in favour of Mr Jonathan Dunstal, which hath been paid. I have nothing farther to add at present, but that I am with Unfeigned Regard;

Mr Fabricius, with Instructions from the Society to get them forwarded to You. These are Accompany with the fervent Wishes of the Society, that through the Overruling Providence of God, they may come safe to Yor Hands, & prove a Seasonable Gift. I am also to Acquaint You, that The Duke of Glocester, Capt Burdett, has received the Silver, designed for the several Missions, which Mr Fabricius is likewise desired to take the Charge of, & distribute in the several proportions marked out to Him, in a Letter upon that Subject.

Mr Fabricius must also Account to You for Your Salary (if He has not already done it) out of the £200 Advanced to him in India by Lieutenant Frazier, & since repayed to that Gentleman by the Society; after deducting for the Several Articles sent at Your particular request. What Dispatches have been received by You in the Year 1762, are Acknowledged by the Society in the Printed Account of Your Mission, at the end of the Anniversary Sermon, preached by Dr Delany last Year, some Copys of which are sent You. The Society, Sir, are highly Satisfyed with Your Conduct in the great & Arduous Work You are engaged in, & have it in their thoughts, & upon their Hearts, to ease You, as soon as they Conveniently can, by deputing some able Person, to come over to Yor relief, & take his Share in the Burden of Yor Mission. I will take care of Yor Letter to Yor Brother, & remain with Unfeigned Esteem,

A true Translation

We the Missionaries are Sent to India by the Honorable Society for promoting Christian Knowledge As we ourselves are not able to discharge the whole Duty of this office, We are advised and Authorized by our Superiors to ordain Priests by the will of God any one (Amongst those that were born and Brought upin this Country) whom we find that give over his mind to Christ Jesus, and be as Catechist for Several years and Shew his faithfulnis.-

We found, that Njanapiragasam was hitherto a Catechist, and preached the Doctrines of Christ, both to Christians and Heathens, and Confirmed it by his good Conduct- Whereby we trust in God, that this Njana-=piragasam will preach the holy word of God very deligently to the Congregation and to Heathens, and Strengthen the Christian Congregation by his good Conduct- Therefore by the Name of God, to discharge the Duty attached to the Priesthood, to preach the holy word of- God, and to administer the holy Baptism and Lord- -supper, we called him by the Name of God in presence of the Congregation, and gave him a Sufficient power required to this office- As God will have all men to be saved & to come in the Knowledge of the truth, We beseech him to grant this our new Brother the Gift of the holy Ghost, and to be with him, & to bless and strengthen him that the Christians may be improved in the Knowledge of Christ and the Heathens may be Converted by His Ministry - But for us, we will love and esteem him as our Brother, and do every assistance required to Him. -

Exegetica

1: Answer: The kingdom of the grace of God in Christ Jesus is become nigh by his coming; wherefore change your mind by weaning them from the lusts & fashion of this world, & by setting them upon Jesus Christ as his attainment for your salvation.

2: Answer: He was baptised to fulfil all righteousness; but we are baptised to obtain his righteousness.

3: Answer: To make known the mysteries of his kingdom to his disciples by explaining them unto them in Plain terms; but to others that seeing they might not see, & hearing they might not understand: This he did in great wisdom - Luk. 8. 10.

4: Answer: No; but the Jew system by swearing by creatures, is forbidden, but not by the creator in a lawful manner.

5: Answer: The perfection in the love of our neighbour, agreeably to the love of God our father - this is the [redacted] of parts, but not of degrees.

6: Answer: For the sake of his son Christ, by believing in whom we obtain the prerogative or privilege of being the children of God: Joh. 1. 12.

7: Answer: The name of father, according to the preface - this name to be hallowed imports, that all mankind may become his children and have him for their father, agreeably to the foregoing explication.

8: Answer: That we & all mankind, in the kingdom of this father be his faithful subjects - this king is no tyrant.

9: Answer: That God's eternal counsel in & thro' Christ may be fulfilled, [illegible] on earth as it has been planned & published in heaven - Gal. 1. 4; Eph. 1. 3-12.

10: Answer: Trouble, a temptation or trial for good, and a temptation to what is evil - in the manner former & violence we shall not deliver us ever.

11: Answer: This passage compared with John 5. 46. gives this sense viz: the divine truth promised & written by Moses thro' divine revelation is established by Christ.

12: Answer: The kingdom which God has promised throughout the O. Testament (under which we pray in the 2. petition) the phrase is not represented but refers to other: E. g. Jer. St. John & the Revelation.

13: Answer: By reason of what is mentioned in the 12. [redacted] verses.

Negative.

1: Answ: Is the word Love: Matth: 22: 37-39: Rom: 13: 10:

2: Answ: Towards God, and our neighbour & ourselves: Towards ourselves our duty consists in loving our neighbour as ourselves, towards God in loving him Jer: 7: 12:

3: Answ: Towards the three persons, Father Son & H: Ghost.

4: Answ: To be made, and behave as his children ought 5: Answ: To be and behave as his redeemed ought 6: Answ: To be made holy by him & live holy 7: Answ: In general, all men, and in particular those with whom we are [closely] nearly connected & related to

8: Answ: They themselves with soul & body according to the 5th Comm: government [illegible] their life according to the 6th; their matrimonial or family-state according to the 7th; their estimate according to the 8th; their good name & fame according to the 9th; and that we ought to do both outwardly & inwardly; so as the 10th & foregoing & the word of God in general require:

9: Answ: We ought to love one another our love towards each of our enemies; accordingly as Jesus & Paul & c: have taught us: Matth: 5: 22: 44: Rom: 7: 12: Rom: 12: 20:

10: Answ: Also other men & nations; and not our own only, like Jews also them with whom we are at war ought we to love; and that so as is shewn in the foregoing 9th question.

11: Answ: God the Father & our saviour Christ & his sufferings &c: 5: 1: 2: 1 Cor: 11:

98 There for the first time included 248 malabars 26 for the first time among them: English Scholars were between 25 & 30 inclusive the Malabars sometimes under & at other times above 20. The number of the Portug.e Congregation was 134, & of the Malabar 208. The number of the Christians at Dindegall was the Year before 45 last year no Catechist could, nor would be sent thither & to Madura against Christmas partly on account of the heavy monsoon, but chiefly by reason of the raging pestilential fever which rages still, and alas spreads in an alarming degree. As to the English Garrison & Cantonement; I have baptised 14, married 6 pair, & officiated at 20 Funerals during the first part of the year Afterwards arrived the new Military Chaplain Rev.d Robt. Smyth; and jointly with him we had 60 Communicants. My fellow labourers are still the same as I have mentioned last year in my official letter On the 11.th of Jan.y last, arrived the presents of Stores & Stationary for our Mission for last year from the Hon.ble Society from Madras, not well packed up, & therefore in part damaged by the heavy rains. I beg the Hon.ble Society to accept my many and respectful thanks for the same, whom I wish health & every other blessing from God

I can not forbear expressing the joy & satisfaction I had in my way to and return from Tanjore through some places where Christian Congregations of Colleries are, who with their Schools came to meet & receive me with joy & gladness bringing me to their places where I have stayed with safety & officiated without being robbed, or even without danger of being robbed. How fit is this Christian behaviour to confound such an unworthy charge as that of a certain Secretary with his favorite Pseudo-prophecy confuted by late Father Schwartz, compleatly! In this very place is now a Christian Congregation of Christianed Colleries where I have also visited but not been robbed of any thing whatever. —

But now my heart bleedeth at the thought that no Missionaries no succour from Europe arrive to our assistance that Mr. Horst is dead, Mr. Kohlhoff the only Missionary at Tanjore and I the only one at Tranquebar, old & gray-headed and may soon be called hence, and that so the Missions are in danger of falling into strange hands may the Lord have mercy on the poor Congregations, & hear our & their prayers according to his gracious & allwise will

Before I conclude this I learn from good authority that in the course of nine months of late at least Thirty Four Thousand people have been swept away by the above disease in the Dindigall Country &c which together with the cause there of to investigate government have ordered a Committee of Medical Gentlemen — I request the favour of laying this letter before the Hon.ble Society to whose Patronage loving kindness & prayers I beg to recommend myself & mine & Missions, and remain

My last official letter to your Reverence was dated the 29th of August last and conveyed the mournful news of the death of the late Revd Mr Horst at Tanjore on the 18th of July 1810; which I hope has reached you before now.

In order to make in some measure up the vacancy caused by Mr Horst's death, and to provide the numerous congregations in the country with Country Priests, (without whom they are like lost & forsaken sheep,) I have with the consent of the Honble Society & the Danish royal Missionaries & being assisted by the Revd John Kohlhoff & the Old Country Priest Sattiandan on the 17th of last Month in the little Fort Church at Tanjore solemnly ordained Four (4) of the fittest Catechists Country Priest according to the Lutheran Ritual in the Tamul tongue, when they previously had been duly examined, and preached their probationary sermons on prescribed Texts before us, and acquitted themselves to our satisfaction; whereof Copies are preparing for the Honble Society. My Co-ordinators with me beg humbly leave to recommend the new Country Priests to the providing care & protection of the Honble Society, as men deserving to be recommended.

In the course of the Year 1810 were baptized - 18 under-

Dear John

I have received 2 of your letters as likewise the large Packet which you sent me before.

Your Reflections on the peril & promise of God to our first parents the day of their Fall are very just & an amazing Mercy! wh. we ought to make our hearts to the warmest Love & Gratitude.

Doubtless this love of God is the fountain of our happiness & holiness to. Wherever it prevail it will outwardly a moral life, as some prudent Fathers have done. But God knows who never sincerely turn their hearts will he give all the glory to God. Pride is at the bot tom of those apparent Virtues.

But a sense of our utter loss & of the inestimable Love of God in Christ not only comforts but sanc tifies & reforms us truly.
Let us intreat God that he may shed forth his grace in our hearts by his holy Ghost that being comfor

Dear John

I have received Your kind letter wherein You acquainted me with the most interesting News of Mr Peter's better Health — Blessed be God for this & all other Mercies, which he has bestowed on Us — Oh what are we, who have deserved nothing but his just Indignation — & still receive daily fresh Instances of his Mercy. Doubtless this is owing to the precious Atonement & Intercession of Jesus Christ.

It is Matter of great Satisfaction to me, that You preserve Your Health; but infinitely more than Your Soul is united to God Your Father through the Merit of Jesus. This is the very Center of all our happiness in Time

Intreat God, that You may grow in Grace & knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. This is that excellent knowledge which St Paul valued so highly, as the 3d Chapt. of his Epistle to the Philipp. plain ly demonstrates.

The more we know God, as a re conciled father through the Blood of Jesus Christ, so much the more his holiness Justice, Love & Mercy will be cleared up in our; & that knowledge is well able, by the Assistance of his holy Spirit, to mend our hearts.

Besides I help God that You wish to become useful to Your fellow Creatures.
This is a mark that the kindness of God is effectual in You. To wish to crave to hunger & thirst after a Union & communion with God is the first & most essential proof of our the Work of God in our Soul — but to be serviceable to Men is always connected with it. May God work both in us!

Remember me to Mr Pole — Mr & Mrs Duffin — Tell Mr. Duffin that I'll write him as soon as I arrive at Tanjore — Send my Horse to Tanjore where I hope to be next Thursday Evening — Take Care that the Horse may be there at the same Time: for I shall need it.

May the Spirit of Jesus enlighten us clear & strengthen us to fight the good Fight of faith & to lay hold on eternal life. I know You pray for it, my Dear John, watch & be upon Your Guard that You may not lose the blessing, which You obtained by Prayer!

Apr. 4. 1785.

Gabriel came to me - I have received him - & appointed him as fellow labourer - When he came gave him 1 Pag.

I have been visiting Head, as they call it in Your Father's house - He is well considered his Eye - Your Mother likewise - & Mrs Caparant

To morrow I intend to set out - & hope to be with Your Friday or Saturday - All is very promising - We have settled all to our Satisfaction -

Yesterday I preached before the Mal congregation - in the afternoon before the Portug.

God bless You & Your brother - Remember me to the Catechists - & Rayappen sets out to day.

Ramnad August 1. 1785.

My Dear John,

Yesterday I received Your Packet
In answer to it:

1. You have committed a Blunder in respect of Sorgens letter. I wrote You from Tondy, that the letter was at Tanjore & entreated You to send it off immediately. It lies on the Couch or on the table - The King of Prussia's picture is in it. Joseph will find it out. Seek it & send it away. It is certainly in my Chamber. I forgot to send it to Mr. Gericke.

Mr. Gerickes Remark that Mr Sor gens letter was perhaps in the Packet has misled You - But Mr Klein's letter was right. However NOW Seek & send it away, that we may hear of it no more.

2. I have told P. Rayappen not to neglect the Country-Congregations. If he preaches once at Tanjore, he might to preach the next Sunday in the country.

3. This afternoon I set out for Ramsen, where I shall administer the Sacrament next Sunday - & then return to Ramnad - perhaps the 9th of August.

A. Nyanapr. has been rather long at Tirutchirapally; but if it has been to Mr. Poler comfort all is well. Let him now take care of the Congregation at Tanjore likewise. Does he spend the fore noon in School? He may read an hour there & then do his business as Catechist: For, as I mentioned to You in my letter, the Polygars at Tirunavely want no School. This Paragraph read to P. Rayappen.

5. According to Mr. Hoppisleys Chit, I suppose, that they have begun to be at the Malab. Church the foundation must be laid in Cuddalore, which You may 6. Before I got Your letter I have written to Mr. Hudleston concerning the Moonshy's pay.

Let him again apply — Give him a hint to the Canaconply telling him that I hoped all was not set aright.
7. Take great care that the Children & particularly Your brother may improve & spend their time in the best manner.
8 The School business goes on very well. God grant that it may continue so — & produce good fruits.
9. Have You sent my letter, which I wrote You, to Mr. Gericke, for I had no time to write to every one apart.
God bless You — & all that are with You. May the spirit of Jesus lead us all.

Dear John Aug. 10. 1785.

I have received Yours of the 3d & 7th with the enclosed book

I am glad that You have found Sorges Letter & sent it away.

I had received Nyamayer's letter & am very glad to hear that that Schoolmaster of Jerich has conducted himself tolerably - Tell him so - Your Journey to Urbana & back via the Chief is very agreeable & the Land fought by those Children of the Soil is horrid - What a Man who has left his God & his Spirit - to rush in such a manner into the presence of the Judge how dreadful -

Your brothers & Sisters I have received & will correct them as I can spare time - To day I have taken a Purge to carry off the Sepsthicky of the Bile -

Yesterday I returned from Pambeen where I visited the 2 daughters of Mr Nevil - Miss Patrick Livesey with the exception of the Head & 2 daughters received the Sacrament. I must say I have not seen a better regulated family in all India - every thing is decent & all have a desire to be united to Christ - The Lord's hand is not against it neither is he neutral - Yes say that Bricks will be wanting - Mr Mein must give me 4000 bricks such as ours are not the Bengal Sanjore sort - Buy them & charge them. Mr. the mate pay for the Carriage - bricks - & then buy some thousands more - I am sorry that the Rajah has not paid the 10 Rs - Have you sent Samuel up & again? for that is necessary.

My Pay Ch. its for the months of May are paid & those for June are not yet paid - Have the Officers been paid?

My best Compts to Capt. & Mrs Kirby - I am truly sorry, that the Town Mastership has been taken off surely it will be difficult to poor keep to maintain such a family by his pay -

The Children improve here very much they begin to spell tolerably way they walk every day they hear.
Take care that the Children at Tan you may improve in talking as well as reading -

As the force of the Land Wind is now broke, the Gardener ought to plant

Dear John

Last night I received Your letter of the 10th with the inclosed Books.

I wrote You before I left Ramsd — & acquainted You with my Intention of proceeding to this place — where I arrived yesterday.

You wish to know the height of the Windows — Ask Mr. Rigby — & he will tell the Bricklayer Master.

How You are to buy Bricks I have told You in One of my letters — which by this time You have received.

I have not yet seen the Dramming Woman.

As soon as I know more I'll let you know it.

Read to Mr Rayappen & to the Catechists — May God bless their labour abundantly. God bless You & lead You always by his blessed Spirit!

To Colonel Martin

Dear Sir

I hope to never be unable to write a Letter, I cannot omit acquainting you with the greatest regret, that your old Friend is no more. He died yesterday at half after four o'clock in the afternoon, & will to be interred this afternoon at the Chapel in his Garden.

He had entirely recovered from his long and severe Indisposition, and enjoyed good health, except that his mental Faculties were extremely weak, & his discourses often unconnected - When on the 2d Inst. we to our great Surprise discovered eruptions & swellings on his left foot, which eruptions encreased so Rapidly, & shewed such Symptoms, that we had very Reason, to dread a Mortification. but the Application of Barks & the use of it invariably hitherto prevented it. However, we discovered soon, that not only his foot, But his whole frame was disordered. From the Fourth he was confined to his bed - his disorder encreased - and at last - four days before his departure - a Fever ensued which only terminated with the distinct Dissolution of his life.

Like the setting Sun, which Before was hid by a Cloud & afterwards appeared with Redoubled Splendor the Mind of our Worthy Friend became the days before his dissolution Wonderfully Serene & his

Dear Sir

I received with very great pleasure your Letter of the 9th Instt. informing me of your acquiescing in the request I made to you to proceed to the Mysore Country, in order to lend your assistance to our Commissioners towards the completion of the important Business entrusted to their Charge — I beg leave to express to you how much I think myself & those whom I have the honor to serve, — obliged to you for your readiness in undertaking a Service which on many accounts could not be desirable to you. —

Enclosed I send a Letter to Tippoo Sultaun, which you will be be pleased to deliver to him yourself — the charge of this Letter, together with my own Passport, which I sent to you, would render any other Cards unnecessary.
